SIX GERMANS ARE KILLED BY FRENCH MILITARY

WORKERS IN KRUPP WORKS RESIST FRENCH

Refuse to Recognize Authority When Occupying Forces Enter Motor Works

MACHINE GUNS FIRED

French Extend Occupation of Coal Areas, Seizing Valuable Loadings

Berlin, Mar. 31.—Six German workers at the Krupp plant in Essen have been killed and 20 injured in a conflict with the French military, says a central dispatch from Essen today. The trouble occurred through the French unexpectedly proceeding to occupy certain of the Krupp motor works, whereupon the workers stopped the machines and went outside to offer opposition, the message says. The officer in charge of the French tried to persuade the workers to return to duty but they refused and surrounded the troops, threatening them with attack unless they withdrew. The officers pointed out that they must carry out orders but the workers were obstinate, declaring they would defend their plant. Four machine guns then opened fire, adds the message, and six workers fell dead while 20 were seriously wounded. The remainder scattered and the French then proceeded to occupy the works.

WILL EXPELL STRIKERS.
Dusseldorf, Mar. 31.—General Degoutt's proclamation that all striking German railway workers in the occupied zone must either return to work or be expelled finds the allies in possession of all Ruhr and Rhineland rail lines except those in the British zone.

Enforcement of the order, it seems, will offer the transportation officials something of a problem for approximately half a million persons including the families of the men, may be affected. It is expected that the process of expulsion will take several weeks and special transportation to the frontier must be provided.

TAKE GOVERNMENT MINES.
Essen, Germany, Mar. 31.—Government-owned coal mines at Enschelippe in the Gelkenkirchen district were occupied today by French engineers, escorted by a detachment of troops with tanks. This is the ninth mine in the Ruhr taken over by the French and Belgians. Thirty thousand tons of coke and great piles of coal were seized.

The French engineers found that the Germans in expectation of the occupation, had taken away part of the machinery. The German mine director was ordered to have these returned. He disclaimed any knowledge of the disappearance, insisting they must have been taken by the workmen. He was arrested.

Several thousand miners employed at this plant were on strike immediately when the troops appeared.

HEALTH BOARD ADOPTS RULES

Will Require Isolation of Pneumonia and Sleeping Sickness

Regulations affecting cases of pneumonia and sleeping sickness were adopted at a meeting of the state board of health here. Isolation will be required in such cases for the safety of others. Dr. H. E. French of Grand Forks, secretary of the board said, adding that this should not be confused with quarantine. The board also decided to include pneumonia and sleeping sickness in the list of diseases to be reported to the state board by local health officers. Weekly, instead of monthly reports, on the number of cases of communicable diseases, also will be required.

The board ratified the appointment made sometime ago by the secretary of Dr. Luisa Boutelle as director of child hygiene and public health. Funds for this work are furnished by the federal government under the Sheppard-Towner act.

The present board of health, composed of Attorney General George Shafer, Dr. W. C. Nolte of Jamestown and Dr. H. E. French of Grand Forks, will be succeeded by the new State Health Council created by the last legislature, as soon as members who have been appointed qualify for the offices.

20 MILLION WOMEN AND GIRLS IN EUROPE DENIED HUSBANDS AND HOMES

Graphic Story of the Surplus of Women in Europe After War Told by Brenner.

NEA Staff Correspondent (Copyright, 1923, NEA Service, Inc.) London, March 31.—Nearly 20,000,000 girls and women in Europe today are doomed to die old maids. They are sentenced to sex-starvation; no husband, no home, no motherhood. It's a situation without precedent in history. It's the biggest human interest story in the world. Yet governments close their eyes to it, statesmen and politicians ignore it, reporters and authors avoid it. It's too vast in all its aspects—political, economic and moral—for them to grapple with.

There are 20,000,000 more females than males in Europe today because of the vagaries of the birthrate, the survival of no c girl infants than boy babies, the decimation of men by war and the heavier toll of males taken by famine and pestilence.

FUNDAMENTALS OF LIFE INVOLVED

These millions of so-called superfluous women are creating questions involving everything of fundamental importance: the sanctity and preservation of the home, the social and political equality of women, work and wages, and the next generation's heritage of good or evil.

In the British Isles the "superfluous" women number 2,000,000. In Russia, 8,000,000.

Their 10,000,000 sisters are scattered throughout the other countries. Not only are there no legitimate mates for these 20,000,000 superfluous women but eligible young men are deterred from marrying by lack of work, cuts in wages, scarcity of houses, higher cost of necessities and threats of new wars.

The result is that a spirit of after-the-war recklessness pervades Europe. Men and women alike spend more of their wages they are keener in pursuing pleasure, they are more defiant of the conventions and lax in their morals.

The male is supreme. At dances he has six girls to pick from, where formerly he had to compete for a partner. Everywhere you see many girls dancing together, hostesses giving balls have a hard time getting as many men as women.

A new type has developed: the paid male escort. In Paris, in Nice, even in Monte Carlo you'll see him dandling with well-to-do women of middle age while charming girls are waitresses.

In every class of society girls will put up with almost any sort of a man for the sake of having him to go out with.

To make something companionable girls smoke, drink, pot and risk other indiscretions.

MORE BABIES BORN OUT OF WEDLOCK

More children are being born out of wedlock than ever before. In England the increase has engaged Parliament's attention, but the latest official figures show England least badly off in this respect.

Out of every 10,000 babies born, the number of illegitimate was as follows:

England and Wales	455
Scotland	711
Ireland	879
Italy	477
Belgium	477
Holland	213
Norway	690
Sweden	1494
Denmark	1043

Throughout Europe is an increasing movement to assist unmarried mothers and to give children born out of wedlock rights they never had before.

FIND BODIES IN SHOW CASE

San Bernardino, Calif., Mar. 31.—After the finding of Richard Jensen, five-year-old, unconscious and the body of Bean Mochan, aged four, in a show case in a vacant building here last night, police here today were investigating the possibility that someone had put the boys in the case and shut the door. The Jensen boy died four hours after being found, without regaining consciousness.

The two children disappeared last Saturday and since then police and officials here and in other towns in southern California had hunted for them. Police at first believed the boys had crawled in the showcase and pulled the door shut after them, but discovery of bruises on their bodies and that the door of the case fitted so tightly that it was difficult for a man to open it led to further investigation.

Railroad Officials Have Not Determined Cause of Flyer's Derailment

Columbus, Ohio, Mar. 31.—The death of W. L. Siebert of Cincinnati, a student locomotive fireman, this morning increased the death toll of the wrecking of the southwestern limited of the Big Four railroad at the northern outskirts of the city yesterday to eight.

Three men, all aboard the train, the speed of which was estimated at 70 miles an hour, and a woman and her two small children, sole passengers of an automobile which the locomotive struck at the grade crossing, were killed instantly. Eleven injured in hospitals were reported on the road to recovery.

One hundred and eight passengers were aboard the train. Railroad officials have not determined whether the train buckled after sudden application of the air brakes or if some part of the demolished automobile got under the "spoon" wheel of the locomotive, causing it and six of the several passenger cars to leave the rails.

ONE DROWNED, ONE ESCAPES, IN ICY WATER

Joseph Fogarty of Fort Rice Is Drowned in Missouri River South of Here

AUTO WENT THROUGH

J. Morford Escaped Through Swimming and Floating on Cakes of Ice

Mandan, Mar. 31.—Joe Fogarty, 40, pool hall proprietor at Ft. Rice, was drowned in the Missouri river, and Jesse Morford, also of Fort Rice, narrowly escaped a similar fate late Thursday afternoon when they attempted to cross the stream in an automobile.

The men in the morning had hauled a load of coal over the ice to Atleiss, a farmer residing on the east bank of the Missouri, opposite Fort Rice, in Emmons county.

In the afternoon, about 5 o'clock the two men drove across the ice in Morford's Ford car. They had nearly reached the east bank when the ice gave way. Fogarty, although an excellent swimmer and a former U. S. Marine, went down with the car and apparently could make no effort to save himself. Morford by swimming and supporting himself on floating cakes of ice, managed to reach solid ice and was hauled to safety. Fogarty had lived at Fort Rice for 10 years and leaves a wife and one child. It is doubtful if the body ever will be recovered as the point where the auto went through is in the east channel and a heavy flood of water would carry it far down stream.

CLAIM MINE GUARDS BEGAN HERRIN RIOTS

Defense Relies on This Testimony in Second of Murder Trials

Marion, Ill., Mar. 31.—WITH testimony from a large number of witnesses in the record all to the effect that the guards of the southern Illinois coal company's mine here fired the first shot and were responsible for the first slaying in the Herring riot of last June, the defense today was ready to call additional witnesses to support its contention that acts of aggression on the part of the guards precipitated the outbreak.

Judge D. T. Harwell ordered a session of court today. As yet none of the six defendants, including Hugh Willis, state executive board member of the Illinois mine workers has been called to testify. Eighteen witnesses for the defense were on the stand yesterday, relating alleged acts of assault, aggression and violence attributed to mine guards, and telling of the slaying of a union miner.

MINOT MAN IS HELD; CHARGED WITH ASSAULT

Also Held on Charge of Mixing Poison with Drinking Water

Minot, Mar. 31.—Preliminary hearings are scheduled to be held this afternoon for Arthur Dolman, arrested yesterday on charges of mixing potassium cyanide with drinking water, two counts of assault and battery and with threatening to kill and do bodily harm. The defendant is engaged in the dry cleaning business, occupies quarters over a store owned by Herman Braunstein. He became angered, police declare, after papers were served on him compelling him to move. Dolman is alleged to have assaulted Mr. and Mrs. Braunstein with his fists and have made threats. Poisoning charge, authorities say, originates from an analysis of water kept for drinking purposes by the Braunsteins which revealed poison.

Russ Reds Persist in Plans to Execute Catholic Priests, Dispatches Say

APPEALS ARE MADE

Moscow, Mar. 31.—The death sentence imposed of Vice-General Butchkevitch commutation of which was denied by the Central Executive Committee, has not been carried out. It was announced at 5 o'clock this afternoon. The general impression last night seemed to be that there was slight probability of the Central Executive Committee changing its decision to give no clemency to the prelate.

Appeals have been made to the foreign office by the heads of the Polish, British, Czechoslovak and Italian missions.

Under ordinary circumstances when clemency is refused an execution is carried out within a few hours. Whether the Central Executive Committee met again yesterday to reconsider its decision in view of the many verbal appeals had not been ascertained officially this morning.

Father Walsh, representative of the Catholic welfare board, told the correspondent he had no answer to his request that he be allowed to administer the last sacrament to Monsignor Butchkevitch.

Foreign relations, which asked that clemency be granted to the prelate were without information at noon as to whether he had been executed.

CONERS IN MINNEAPOLIS.

Minneapolis, Mar. 31.—Gov. R. A. Nestos, of North Dakota, conferred here yesterday with Major Stanley Washburn of the Washburn-Lightfoot Coal company relative to the general development of the lignite fields of North Dakota. They discussed general subjects and it was not expected that any definite conclusion would be reached. Mr. Nestos will go to Chicago today for a conference with bond attorneys concerning a pending North Dakota mill and elevator bond issue.

ASK SCHOOL BIDS MAY 1

New 10-Room Building to be Fireproof, Board Says

Bids will be received here on May 1 by the city school board for the building of a new 10-room grade school building, for which $85,000 in bonds were voted at a recent city election.

The building will be fire-proof and of most modern construction, it is stated. The basement will contain a room which may be used as a community room and gymnasium, and will have a stage in it. There also will be a cafeteria in the basement. The lines will be along those of the Richolt school, most recently built of all school buildings in the city, with a different exterior. North Dakota brick probably will be used.

MAYOR, OTHER OFFICIALS OF CITY GUILTY

Fifty-Five Defendants of Gary, Indiana, Convicted in U. S. Court

IN LIQUOR RING

Government Charged Conspiracy Among Officials to Violate Volstead Law

Indianapolis, Mar. 31.—Fifty-five of sixty-two residents of Lake county and Gary, Indiana, tried on a charge of conspiracy to violate the Volstead act, were found guilty by a jury in United States district court here today.

Among the most prominent defendants found guilty were Russell O. Johnson, mayor of Gary; William H. Oide, sheriff of Lake county; William M. Dunn, judge of the Gary city court, and Blaz Lueg, a Gary attorney.

Seventy-five persons living in Gary and Lake county were indicted by a federal grand jury last December on a charge of conspiracy to violate the Volstead act. Of this number five pleaded guilty before the trial, one indictment was nolle prossed and seven other defendants have not been arrested.

Other prominent defendants found guilty are: Dwight M. Kinder, prosecuting attorney of Lake county; Lewis E. Barnes, former sheriff of Lake county; Clyde Hunter, former prosecutor of Lake county; John Bennett, treasurer of the Republican city committee of Gary and Charles L. Clemens, a justice of the peace.

Had Mushroom Growth. Gary, called the steel city, lies on the shores of Lake Michigan, near Chicago. It had a mushroom growth, and was peopled early with many foreign workers in the steel company plants there. It has been the scene of stormy politics for many years, and charges of lawlessness have been made on many occasions.

Mayor Johnson was at one time prominently spoken of as a candidate for Governor.

Sensational testimony marked the trial here. One tourist asserted that he had been arrested in Gary and "shaken down," although he had no liquor in his car. The government charges that the liquor ring, through control of officials and some courts, operated with impunity.

TOOK GUNS TO BARN AFTER HE KILLED GIRL

George Haneckeyk Found in Darkest Corner of Albertson Barn Near Baldwin

BODIES BROUGHT HERE

Inquest Is Planned to Uncover all Possible Details of The Crime

Belief that George Haneckeyk planned to make a stand against a posse after he had murdered Ellen Albertson at the farm home of her father, Erick Albertson, west of Baldwin, yesterday afternoon was expressed by authorities who returned here last night with the bodies of the victims of the murder and suicide.

After Haneckeyk had slain the girl he picked up two guns, a 12-gauge shotgun and a .22 calibre rifle and went to the hayloft of the Albertson barn. He may have lost his nerve or simply was overcome by the consequences of his act and then decided to kill himself, authorities say.

The acts of Haneckeyk just before the tragedy for the most part will remain a closed secret, but it was apparent that after he had killed the girl by beating her over the head with a stove poker or shaker his acts were calm and deliberate. Haneckeyk was an ex-convict, having been sent to prison from Minot on a charge of assaulting a girl with intent to kill. He served three and a half years.

The weapon with which he clubbed the girl, spotted with blood, was placed back upon the stove. Haneckeyk picked up two guns, a shotgun and a rifle which had been left near a door, walked to the barn and into the hayloft. He went down upon the hay laid a gun aside, placed the shotgun to his breast just under the heart, and with a long roll pulled the trigger. The charge tore a hole the size of a silver dollar in his breast and the shot rest against his back. He heart was almost literally blown out.

GIRL WRITING LETTER.
The tragedy probably had occurred about the middle of the afternoon, while Mr. Albertson was away on a load of coal and his daughter about 19 years of age, and Haneckeyk were alone.

The girl had been sitting at a table writing a letter, it being understood, to Paul Engstrom, a neighbor boy now studying telegraph at Valparaiso university in Indiana. A letter was found half-finished on the floor. A chair had been overturned.

It probably was but a few minutes from the time Haneckeyk approached the girl until he had crushed her to the floor. There were marks upon her throat, probably the impression of his fingers, as he gripped her. There were tufts of hair in her hair which she had doubtless pulled from her head while resisting his advance. One of the girl's finger-nails, almost torn off and the end of finger badly crushed.

The curious workings of the mind of Haneckeyk at the moment are a matter of speculation. Father does not believe there was a struggle. The indications were that he had made a terrific fight against the man seeking to overcome her will in his mind and that he struggled so hard that he killed her. The father believes that she was struck from behind as she was writing the letter.

There were four bad wounds upon her head. The scalp had been cut on the forehead and there were two distinct blows in the back of her head. One of them, physician said, completely crushed the skull and was sufficient to cause virtually instantaneous death. The body was lying full length upon the dining room floor.

Weapon a Stove Shaker.
The weapon used by Haneckeyk to murder the girl was not a gun, as first reported, but a stove poker or shaker, an improvised utensil of iron about a foot long, rather heavy, and with two sharp, upturned edges at either end. The girl's head was matted with blood when the body was picked up.

The father of the girl told of his horror at entering the home in the afternoon, pervaded by a deathly stillness. (Continued on Page Three)

Railroad Officials Have Not Determined Cause of Flyer's Derailment

Columbus, Ohio, Mar. 31.—The death of W. L. Siebert of Cincinnati, a student locomotive fireman, this morning increased the death toll of the wrecking of the southwestern limited of the Big Four railroad at the northern outskirts of the city yesterday.

Three men, all aboard the train, the speed of which was estimated at 70 miles an hour, and a woman and her two small children, sole passengers of an automobile which the locomotive struck at the grade crossing, were killed instantly. Eleven injured in hospitals were reported on the road to recovery. One hundred and eight passengers were aboard the train. Railroad officials have not determined whether the train buckled after sudden application of the air brakes or if some part of the demolished automobile got under the "pony wheels" of the locomotive, causing it and six of the several passenger cars to leave the rails.

SISTER KILLED.

Jamestown, N. D., Mar. 31.—T. C. Jones, Northern Pacific fireman, received word that his sister, Mrs. Frank Hemminger, was one of the eight killed in the Columbus, Ohio, wreck of the Big Four railroad yesterday.

Representatives of the Northwest Wheat Growers Association, the Equity Cooperative Exchange and United States Grain Growers Sales Company of Minneapolis have been invited to the meeting. Decision to call this meeting was reached at a conference of Farm Bureau officials from the Dakotas and Minnesota at Crookston Friday, Mr. Reed said.

ONE DROWNED, ONE ESCAPES, IN ICY WATER

Joseph Fogarty of Fort Rice Is Drowned in Missouri River South of Here

AUTO WENT THROUGH

J. Morford Escaped Through Swimming and Floating on Cakes of Ice

Mandan, Mar. 31.—Joe Fogarty, 40, pool hall proprietor at Ft. Rice, was drowned in the Missouri river, and Jesse Morford, also of Fort Rice, narrowly escaped a similar fate late Thursday afternoon when they attempted to cross the stream in an automobile.

The men in the morning had hauled a load of coal over the ice to Al Kless, a farmer residing on the east bank of the Missouri, opposite Fort Rice, in Emmons county. In the afternoon, about 5 o'clock the two men drove across the ice in Morford's Ford car. They had nearly reached the east bank when the ice gave way. Fogarty, although an excellent swimmer and a former U. S. Marine, went down with the car and apparently could make no effort to save himself. Morford by swimming and supporting himself on floating cakes of ice, managed to reach solid ice and was hauled to safety. Fogarty had lived at Fort Rice for 10 years and leaves a wife and one child. It is doubtful if the body ever will be recovered as the point where the auto went through is in the east channel and a heavy flood of water would carry it far down stream.

CLAIM MINE GUARDS BEGAN HERRIN RIOTS

Defense Relies on This Testimony in Second of Murder Trials

Marion, Ill., Mar. 31.—With testimony from a large number of witnesses in the record all to the effect that the guards of the southern Illinois coal company's mine here fired the first shot and were responsible for the first slaying in the Herring riot of last June, the defense today was ready to call additional witnesses to support its contention that acts of aggression on the part of the guards precipitated the outbreak.

Judge D. T. Harwell ordered a session of court today. As yet none of the six defendants, including Hugh Willis, state executive board member of the Illinois mine workers has been called to testify. Eighteen witnesses for the defense were on the stand yesterday, relating alleged acts of assault, aggression and violence attributed to mine guards and telling of the slaying of a union miner.

MINOT MAN IS HELD; CHARGED WITH ASSAULT

Also Held on Charge of Mixing Poison with Drinking Water

Minot, Mar. 31.—Preliminary hearings are scheduled to be held this afternoon for Arthur Dolman, arrested yesterday on charges of mixing potassium cyanide with drinking water, two counts of assault and battery and with threatening to kill and do bodily harm. The defendant is engaged in the dry cleaning business, occupies quarters over a store owned by Herman Braunstein. He became angered, police declare, after papers were served on him compelling him to move. Dolman is alleged to have assaulted Mr. and Mrs. Braunstein with his fists and to have made threats. Poisoning charge, authorities say, originates from an analysis of water kept for drinking purposes by the Braunsteins which revealed poison.

LITTLE HOPE IS SEEN FOR COMMUTATION

Russ Reds Persist in Plans to Execute Catholic Priests, Dispatches Say

APPEALS ARE MADE

Moscow, Mar. 31.—The death sentence imposed of Vicar-General Butchavitch commutation of which was denied by the Central Executive Committee, has not been carried out. It was announced at 5 o'clock this afternoon. The general impression last night seemed to be that there was slight probability of the Central Executive Committee changing its decision to give no clemency to the prelate.

Appeals have been made to the foreign office by the heads of the Polish, British, Czechoslovak and Italian missions.

Under ordinary circumstances when clemency is refused an execution is carried out within a few hours. Whether the Central Committee met again yesterday to reconsider its decision in view of the slight appeal had not been ascertained officially this morning.

Father Walsh, representative of the Catholic welfare board, told the correspondent he had no answer to his request that he be allowed to administer the last sacrament to Monsignor Butchavitch. Foreign relations which asked that clemency be granted to the prelate were without information at noon as to whether he had been executed.

Nestos, of North Dakota, conferred here yesterday with Major Stanley Washburn of the Washburn-Lignite Coal company relative to the general development of the lignite fields of North Dakota. They discussed general subject and it was not expected that any definite conclusion would be reached. Mr. Nestos will go to Chicago today for a conference with bond attorneys concerning a pending North Dakota mill and elevator bond issue.

ASK SCHOOL BIDS MAY 1

New 10-Room Building to be Fireproof, Board Says

Bids will be received here on May 1 by the city school board for the building of a new 10-room grade school building, for which $85,000 in bonds were voted at a recent city election. The building will be fire-proof and of rugged mountain trail impassable to wheeled vehicles lay ahead of friends of Jess Pace and George Belcher today when they started from Straight Creek to a hospital here with the two men desperately wounded in a pistol dose yesterday. Relay teams of stretcher bearers were to bring in the men. Cause of the duel was undetermined. Prior to this affray seven persons had been killed in two fights in this section since Tuesday. Moonshine whiskey was blamed for both fights. Alex Lytle and Claude Short, deputy constables, were slain in a fight at the home of H. Gilliam, a brother of Lytle. Gilliam's son, aged 6, was killed in the fight. Kelly Walker, a deputy sheriff, Isaac Strong and George Strong, and Mrs. Isaac Strong were killed in an encounter between a posse and the Strong family in Leslie county.

MAYOR, OTHER OFFICIALS OF CITY GUILTY

Fifty-Five Defendants of Gary, Indiana, Convicted in U. S. Court

IN LIQUOR RING

Government Charged Conspiracy Among Officials to Violate Volstead Law

Indianapolis, Mar. 31.—Fifty-five of sixty-two residents of Lake county and Gary, Indiana, tried on a charge of conspiracy to violate the Volstead act, were found guilty by a jury in United States district court here today.

Among the most prominent defendants found guilty were Rossell O. Johnson, mayor of Gary; William H. Olds, sheriff of Lake county; William M. Dunn, judge of the Gary city court, and Blaz Lucas, a Gary attorney.

Seventy-five persons living in Gary and Lake county were indicted by a federal grand jury last December on a charge of conspiracy to violate the Volstead act. The number five pleaded guilty before the trial, one indictment was nolle prossed and seven other defendants have not been arrested.

Other prominent defendants found guilty are: Dwight M. Kinder, prosecuting attorney of Lake county; Lewis E. Barnes, former sheriff of Lake county; Clyde Hunter, former prosecutor of Lake county; John Bennett, treasurer of the Republican city committee of Gary and Charles L. Clemens, a justice of the peace.

Gary, called the steel city, lies on the shores of Lake Michigan, near Chicago. It had a mushroom growth, and was peopled early with many foreign workers in the steel company plants there. It has been a hotbed of starchy politics for many years, and charges of lawlessness have been made on many occasions.

Mayor Johnson was at one time prominently spoken of as a candidate for Governor.

Sensational testimony marked the trial here. One tourist asserted that he had been arrested in Gary and "shaken down," although he had no liquor in his car. The government charges that the liquor ring, through control of officials and some courts, operated with impunity.

D. while they were driving in a taxicab here last night. Three masked men jumped into a touring car aboard the taxicab and held up the driver and women. Six diamond rings were removed from the fingers of Mrs. Wishard and they robbed Mrs. Johnson of her purse. No attempt was made to rob the driver, A. G. Schramm.

Mott, N. D., March 31.—The "Associated Dakota Land Owners," is a new booster body which has just been launched under the direction of F. G. Orr of Mott. Its purpose is to bring new settlers to southwestern North Dakota through co-operation of various agencies. Banks and businessmen, civic organizations and newspapers will join in an organized campaign of publicity, with follow up letters, and personal canvass for prospective purchasers of lands. A thorough canvass will be made for listing of lands from outside owners. "Dirt farmers" are wanted.

CARRY VICTIMS OF DUEL EIGHT MILES TO REACH MEDICAL HELP

Marion, Ky., Mar. 31.—Eight miles of rugged mountain trail impassable to wheeled vehicles lay ahead of friends of Jess Pace and George Belcher today when they started from Straight Creek to a hospital here with the two men desperately wounded in a pistol dose yesterday. MADE BOMBS USED IN WALL ST. EXPLOSION

Alleged Confession Is Reported in Los Angeles by H. Wilson

Los Angeles, Mar. 31.—Many of the details of the purported confession of Herbert Wilson, confessed mail robber and former evangelist, that he manufactured the explosives in the bomb that killed 39 persons and destroyed property valued at thousands of dollars in Wall street, New York City, Sept. 17, 1920, are withheld from the public "for the present" it was admitted today by county and federal agents.

TOOK GUNS TO BARN AFTER HE KILLED GIRL

George Hanekeyck Found in Darkest Corner of Albertson Barn Near Baldwin

BODIES BROUGHT REVEREND

Inquest Is Planned to Uncover all Possible Details of The Crime

Belief that George Hanekeyck planned to make a stand against a posse after he had murdered Ellen Albertson at the farm home of her father, Erick Albertson, west of Baldwin, yesterday afternoon was expressed by authorities who returned here last night with the bodies of the victims of the murder and suicide.

After Hanekeyck had slain the girl he picked up two guns, a 12-gauge shotgun and a .22 calibre rifle and went to the hayloft of the Albertson barn. He may have lost his nerve or simply was overcome by the consequences of his act and then decided to kill himself, authorities say.

The acts of Hanekeyck just before the tragedy for the most part will remain a closed secret, but it was apparent that after he had killed the girl by beating her over the head with a stove poker or shaker his acts were calm and deliberate. Hanekeyck was an ex-convict having been sent to prison from Minot on a charge of assaulting a girl with intent to kill. He served three and a half years.

The weapon with which he clubbed the girl, spotted with blood, was placed back upon the stove. Hanekeyck picked up two guns, a shotgun and a rifle which had been left near a door, walked to the barn and into the hayloft. He went into the darkest corner. There, perhaps within 15 minutes after the murder, he sat down upon the hay laid one gun aside, placed the shotgun to his breast just under the heart, and with a long rod pulled the trigger. The charge tore a hole the size of a silver dollar in his breast and the shot rest against his back. He heard was almost literally blown out.

GIRL WRITING LETTER.

The tragedy probably had occurred about the middle of the afternoon, while Mr. Albertson was away to get a load of coal and his daughter about 19 years of age, and Hanekeyck were alone in the farm home. The girl had been sitting at a table writing a letter, it being addressed, it is understood, to Paul Engstrom, neighbor boy now studying telegraphy at Valparaiso university in Indiana. A letter was found half-finished and a fountain pen on the floor. A chair has been overturned. It probably was but a few minutes from the time Hanekeyck approached the girl until he had crushed her to the floor. There were marks upon her throat, probably the impressions of his fingers as he gripped her. There were tufts of hair in her hands, which she had doubtless pulled from his head while resisting his advance. One of the girl's finger-nails was almost torn off and the end of the finger badly crushed.

The curious workings of the depraved mind of Hanekeyck at the moment are a matter of speculation. The father does not believe there was a struggle. The indications were that she had made a terrific fight against the man seeking to overcome her with assault in his mind and that she struggled so hard that he killed her. The father believes that she was struck from behind as she was writing the letter.

There were four bad wounds upon her head. The scalp had been cut in the forehead and there were three distinct blows in the back of her head. One of them, physician said, completely crushed the skull and was sufficient to cause virtually instantaneous death. The body was lying full length upon the dining room floor.

Weapon a Stove Shaker. The weapon used by Hanekeyck to murder the girl was not a gun, as first reported, but a stove poker or shaker, an improvised utensil of iron about a foot long, rather heavy, and with two sharp, upturned edges at either end. The girl's head was matted with blood when the body was picked up. The father of the girl told of his horror at entering the home in the afternoon, pervaded by a deathly stillness. SCHOOLS TO DISMISS FOR PUPPET PLAY

Sarg Spent Six Months "Out fitting" His Players at a Cost of $10,000

The schools will be closed Monday at recess in order to allow ample time for the children to attend Tony Sarg's "Rip Van Winkle" at the auditorium Monday afternoon, April 2 at 3 o'clock. In the evening at 8 o'clock "Don Quixote" will be presented by the marionettes.

Sarg has taken the stage versions of Rip Van Winkle and "revamped" this quaint old American folk tale, and with a quiet laugh all his own has quaintly and attractively burlesqued them all," says the New York Evening Telegram.

"Any way he has made a unique entertainment that appeals to children of all ages. Rip's famous dog, no longer Schneider, as in Jefferson's version, but now rejoicing in the name of Wolf, is worth the price of admission all by himself.

"He is one of the best actors in the cast. His tail is as eloquent as that of any dog who ever moved without wires in real life, and he has ears that are as telegraphic as John Barrymore and alert as Mrs. Fiske. His bark has much variety, and he talks back to Rip with an unflinching responsiveness.

"There is a rabbit, too, in the play, who is much like a real rabbit that when he scurried across the stage, Kenneth Mac Gowan's first born hailed him from the audience with the delighted cry, 'Hello bunny'."

The old romance of Don Quixote which will be presented in the evening could be staged on the regular stage only with great difficulty, but it falls within the limits of the Marionette production with considerable ease, as the characters are themselves caricatures, humorous, and full of action. Animals abound in the story, and Mr. Sarg handles himself perfectly at home in producing acting sheep, horses, Sancho Panza's ass, Donkey, and even venturing into the insect world when it became necessary to show the ubiquitous humblybee which disturbed the slumbers of the doughty Don and his faithful Squire, Sancho.

The Don's charge upon a flock of sheep his tilting contest with the windmill and with another knight in armor, and the little marionette play within the marionette play are a few of the features most unusual and never before attempted on the marionette stage. Mr. Sarg devoted six months to the production, during which time he dramatized the story, made the figures, designed and produced the costumes except for a few which came from Spain and Italy, and conducted a school for his puppeteers. The total cost of the play amounted to more than $10,000.

Tickets for children under twelve years of age will be 25 cents, for all others 40 cents; adults 50 and 75 cents.

WILL SUMMON MITCHELL FOR EXAMINATION

Wealthy Philadelphian to be Questioned in Keenan Case Again

New York, Mar. 31.—John Kearsley Mitchell, wealthy son-in-law of Edward T. Stotesbury of Philadelphia again will be questioned by Assistant District Attorney Pecora today in his re-examination of all persons concerned in the still unsolved murder of Dorothy Keenan.

The wealthy Philadelphian was scheduled to meet Mr. Pecora this afternoon. It was said his personal attorney, John H. Jackson, also would be questioned.

Francis Keenan, 21, brother of the girl, took up a good deal of Mr. Pecora's time after he had admitted that it was he that had telephoned Major Draper Daugherty, only son of the Attorney General of the United States, demanding that she be given a job in the Department of Justice. He denied, Mr. Pecora said, that he had threatened Major Daugherty with exposure of his admitted friendship with the Keenan girl in the event the job was not provided.

AT THE MOVIES

THE ELTINGE.

"The Woman Conquers," which comes to the Eltinge theater for Monday is a story of the north woods. The cast includes Katherine MacDonald, Bryant Washburn, Mitchell Lewis and June Elvidge. A Robert Bruce wilderness tale, Pathe News and Christie comedy, "Choose Your Weapons," complete the program.

Lewis Stone and Bebe Daniels appear Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday in a Wm. DeMille Paramount picture, "The World's Applause." Buster Kenton, the solemn visaged comedian is also on the program in "The Blacksmith" and "the muscles of his brawny arms were strong as rubber bands."

CAPITOL THEATER

Life was anything but a continual round of pleasure for the crew of the whaling schooner "Carolyn Frances," regardless of whether its members had really signed ship's articles or belonged to the cast of players enacting the Metro version of Ben Ames Williams' powerful sea story, "All the Brothers Were Valiant." This is an Irvin V. Willat production and is presented at the Capitol Theater Monday.

Fights and whaling were the principal activities of crew and cast during the month the "Carolyn Frances" sailed Pacific waters.

Being confined to the ship every day for a month became irksome to the cast. Chasing whales in long-boats served to help break the monotony but even this sport lost its fascination.

The picture called for a mutiny scene. After its screening, stock was taken of casualties. Black eyes, bruised knuckles and cracked ribs were plentiful. With such astic artists as Al Kaufman, well known "white hope" of a few years ago, leading the attack, much physical damage resulted.

The edifice, together with some of its contents, was practically destroyed with a loss estimated at $75,000. The origin of the fire was not determined.

EASTER MARKS
RESURRECTION
OF SAVIOR

the Oldest Festival on
The Christian
Calendar

Easter, commemorating to the Christian believer the Resurrection of the Saviour of mankind; and, to the secular mind, the formal opening of the springtime season; but observed as a festival of joy and feasting by both is the oldest of all the festivals in the Christian calendar. It is the day which marked the beginning of the preaching of the Gospel of Christ. Easter even antedates Christmas as a fixed event; for, while a day of the Resurrection has been observed from the foundation of the Christian religion, it was not until four centuries later that the nativity of Jesus of Nazareth began to be celebrated.

Not less a fixed event than Easter is Good Friday, commemorative of the day of the Crucifixion and observed on the Friday immediately preceding the Easter festival. Increasing importance has been attached by Christian communities in later years as it is variously known. It is probably, as the day on which Christ offered up his life for the redemption of the world, the most sacred and solemn of the Christian year. In most of the churches on that day the stars are stripped of all decorations, the Cross is draped in black and the hangings are of a similar sombre hue, and the day is given over largely by the devout to prayer and meditation. This note of sacredness and solemnity is reflected even in the affairs of the secular world, many of the state of the union in deference to its deeply religious significance, having made it a legal holiday. The custom of celebrating the day is involved in obscurity, except for the fact that it is the day on which Christ was nailed to the cross on the Hill of Golgotha; but from the earliest times, every Friday among Christians has been regarded as a fast day; as every Sunday has been a feast day; and the connection between the one as marking the day of the Crucifixion and the other as marking the day of the Resurrection, is easily traced.

One of the most interesting facts in connection with Easter is that its origin dates back to the old Jewish Feast of the Passover. According to church historians, "The first Christians being derived from or intimately connected with the Jewish church, naturally continued to observe the Jewish festival, though in new spirit, as commemorative of events of which those had been shadows. The Passover, ennobled by the thought of Christ as the true Pascal Lamb, continued to be celebrated, and became the Christian Easter."

Early differences arose as to the precise day on which the Easter festival should be observed. In the Jewish calendar the Passover occurs on a fixed day of the month; while the Christians, from the earliest days, assigned the Easter Festival to a fixed day of the week, namely, Sunday, that being the first day of the week and the day, according to Scripture, upon which Christ rose from the dead. Astronomical problems of a confusing character were largely responsible for these differences, which continued until the year 325 A. D., when the Council of Nicea decreed that everywhere in Christendom Easter should be celebrated on the same day. But it was not until the adoption of the Gregorian Calendar in 1582 that this decree secured anything like general acceptance; and even to this day in the churches of Greece and Russia as well as in some of the Oriental congregations where the modern calendar has not been accepted the date of Easter varies.

SIXTY-FIVE MILLION AMERICANS WILL ATTEND CHURCH SERVICES TOMORROW

Sixty-five million Americans, professing membership in the churches or Sunday schools of the nation, will go to church services tomorrow—Easter Sunday.

This leaves forty-five millions unaccounted for. Of these forty-five millions—just a little less than half the population of the country—comparatively few are agnostics or atheists. Most of them are people who through carelessness, or indifference, or diversion, have neglected the religious side of their nature.

Easter commemorates the resurrection of Christ from the sepulchre. It comes in the spring, when everywhere about us the spirit of resurrection is symbolized by nature. It should suggest to every one of us that this is the time for the resurrection of our spiritual natures. The Christian church is the open door to realization of resurrection. It stands waiting to develop us spiritually. This would be a far better world to live in if all of us were attending church regularly.

Go to church on Easter. You'll feel a lot better if you do. Your soul needs food, too, you must know. Satisfy your spiritual hunger. Go to church on Easter.

By Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick
Pastor, First Presbyterian Church of New York

Go to church on Easter!

That is not the whole of Christianity—not by a long sea-mile! Being a Christian extends through seven days every week, twelve months a year, and it affects a man's whole life, from his secret thoughts, to his business methods and his citizenship.

Because the finest elements in our American life came from the influence of Jesus Christ, and Easter is the festival of his victory. Because civilization's deepest need is the triumph of real Christianity and Easter is Christianity's rallying day.

Because this is one of the most spiritually restless generations in human history, and the message of Easter—a victorious spiritual life which can conquer trouble, sin and death—is the message that modern men and women need.

Because you yourself have the old human needs for faith in God, inward power to carry on, and hope of life eternal, and Easter should have a personal message for you.

Go to church on Easter!

20 Million Women and Girls in Europe Denied Husbands

consciously—present in the sexual nature of a woman than of a man; and that in consequence the satisfaction of that impulse is to a great extent the satisfaction of a need which makes the disproportionate number of women in any country a real tragedy.

"I realize the cruelty of a civilization in which war and its accessories create an artificial excess of women over men and in consequence deprive many women of motherhood."

STEPS TAKEN TO AID LUCKLESS CHILDREN

To attribute the increase in illegitimacy to this yearning for motherhood is at least the charitable viewpoint.

Legislation has been undertaken in several countries including England, Norway, Sweden and Germany to require fathers to support children born out of wedlock and to make such children's right more broad and secure. But France and the Latin countries are doing nothing along this line though legitimate births decrease while illegitimacy increases.

The various countries are striving in divers ways to stimulate the birthrate among the married. In France, for instance, 53 business associations combine to pay a million employees bonuses for each child. Christiania, the capital of Norway, pays pensions to widows, women divorced or separated from their husbands and unmarried women who have children.

Single girls and women who must support themselves are finding it increasingly difficult to obtain employment or to hold jobs.

Millions were engaged in war work or in replacing men who went to war; the armistice, the return of the soldiers and the industrial slump threw the majority of these out of jobs.

WOMEN FORCED TO COMPETE WITH MEN

Those that remained had to compete with men. They found the soldiers demanding their places back. Those that held their jobs found their pay cut. Many were given the choice of showing personal favors to unscrupulous superiors or seeking work elsewhere.

Laws passed for the protection of women workers proved a handicap to them; employers rather than comply with statutes requiring creature comforts or forbidding night work discharged the women and hired men.

Willingness of many women to work for less than men demanded soon developed. This resulted in many instances in reduced wages for men supporting families. It kept single men from marrying.

Unquestionably thousands of women have died of starvation, or of diseases bred of hunger! but many others have taken "the easy way," with the result that divorce records, as in England, show more homes broken up by unfaithfulness of husbands.

The woman lucky enough to have a husband has to fight to hold him. WOMEN ARE BALKED IN FIGHT FOR RIGHTS

The 20,000,000 superfluous women stand in the path of political progress of their own sex.

The law of supply and demand seems to operate herein as elsewhere. The more wheat there is, the less the farmers can get for it. The more women there are, the less they can get for themselves.

So women politically have added little to the gains they made in the way of equal suffrage and equal rights before the war. They have less political influence, if anything, France, for instance, recently voted down woman suffrage.

In 40 or 60 years—after two or three generations—fatters probably will readjust themselves. Europe's attitude seems to be: "Let Nature take its course."

Farm Pests Cost Billion Each Year

Washington, March 30.—A billion dollars a year is the board bill of uninvited farm and fruit pests which have come to the United States from foreign lands, according to Chairman C. L. Marlatt of the Federal Horticultural Board. Two hours of every day's work on the farm or in the garden and orchard goes to feed these guests, Dr. Marlatt says.

There are at least 100 major plant pests and many hundreds of minor pests which have been imported, but there are thousands of other pests, insect and plant, that have not gained entry into the United States and which the Federal Horticultural Board is endeavoring to keep out.

Fifteen quarantines are being enforced now, and in connection with these, efforts are under way to eradicate the pink bollworm, the citrus canker, and the Parlatioria date scale. The other recently established pests, including the European corn borer, the Japanese beetle, the pine blister, etc., are recognized now as permanent factors in the agriculture of the country, and for these, retardation of spread is the only hope left. This eradication and control work is being conducted by the Federal Horticultural Board and involves an annual expenditure of upwards of $2,000,000.

Siberia Cooperates in Soviet Trade Monopoly

Vladivostok, March 31.—Mr. L. Serebriakoff, former assistant minister of communications, has been sent here as the representative of the department of labor and defense. This is the highest department of the state and comprises the most highly placed communists.

On January 30, the customs house was closed for all commercial operations, and no goods can be imported until it has been proved that they are not in the category of those whose import has been forbidden by order or the Soviet government.

The opinion was expressed at a meeting of the Far Eastern board of communications that the monopoly of foreign trade by the government as a political weapon against the capitalist countries, would not give the same result in the Far East as it would on the Western front, owing to the fact that the one nation whose frontiers march with those of Russian is China, and "the political opinion of China is dictated by the Western World."

FLOATING DEBT INCREASED.

Berlin, Mar. 31.—Germany's floating debt increased by 1,455 billion marks in the second 10 days of March. The total flotation thereby reached was 5,800 billion marks.

Here's a popular way to serve Kellogg's Bran—greatest health food!

Most every one who realizes how effective Kellogg's Bran is for the permanent relief of constipation has their own particular way of serving this wonderful cereal. Most families eat it as a cereal with milk or cream. Others sprinkle it on their favorite hot or cold cereal. Every one enjoys its nut-like flavor!

If you are cooking a hot cereal try this method:—Measure off two table-spoonfuls for each member of the family. Mix it with the cereal and cook as you always cook the cereal.

Kellogg's Bran is scientifically prepared and ready to eat, but its regulatory powers are in no way impaired if you cook it with other cereals.

Kellogg's Bran has won the friendly recommendation of physicians because it does give prompt and permanent relief from mild or chronic constipation and because it can be eaten without forming a habit. Again, Kellogg's Bran will free you from drastic, dangerous cathartics.

When constipation conditions exist in your system or when you are threatened, do not take half-way measures. Foods with a partial bran content cannot free you! What you must have is Kellogg's Bran because it is ALL BRAN! Go the limit; get relief!

Every member of your family will delight in eating Bran raisin bread, muffins, pancakes, macaroons, etc. Recipes on every package.

Start eating Bran to-day! Get well—keep well—keep disease out of your home! First-class hotels, clubs and restaurants serve Kellogg's Bran in individual packages. All grocers.

Harding's Chances
For Another Term

One blast from the bugle of Harry Daugherty sets the wild echoes flying in every corner of the land. The Attorney-General's confident declaration that President Harding will be renominated without opposition, and will be "again overwhelmingly elected," is a signal that the political shooting for the next Presidential campaign is now in order. Why the Harding hat should be "shied" into the ring so early puzzles some observers, who wonder if certain rivals are getting this notice to keep out. Some sort of contest seems indicated, we are assured, and with the President making twenty speeches in defense of his policies, and constructing planks for a reelection platform; with Senator W. E. Borah outlining his own policies, both foreign and domestic, in a series of well-advertised speeches; and with Hiram Johnson coming back from Europe "preparing to fight in a spectacular way," as a paper in his State puts it, it is clear enough to the Baltimore Sun, "that we shall not have a dull political summer. An exciting, if not enjoyable, time will probably 'be had by all.'"

"I saw a good one in FUN from the PRESS at the Grand Theater this week," said a toastmaster recently. "A little chap climbed on his father's knee and said, 'Daddy, can you still do tricks?' Somewhat surprised, the sire asked, 'Why, what do you mean, son, 'do tricks?'" And in all innocence the little lad responded, "Well mama says that when you were young you used to drink like a fish." The audience roared an approval of laughter and the usual early chill of such an occasion was dispelled.

BISMARCK, NORTH DAKOTA

GIRL SHOOT RICH SUITOR IN HIS OFFICE

Discovery That He Was Married Said to Have Led to The Tragedy

New York, Mar. 31.—Frederick W. Burnham, 44, a contractor, socially, financially and professionally prominent, died early yesterday, the victim of a gun in the hands of Miss Ziegler, his daughter, a well-to-do Riverside drive family, who killed herself after having mortally wounded Burnham in his office late yesterday.

The tragedy is believed to have occurred when the girl's discovery, after a 10-years friendship with Burnham, that the contractor was married.

Miss Ziegler called at Burnham's office in the Grand Central terminal yesterday but he was too busy to see her. She returned two hours later and obtained access to the office while a friend, Miss Ida Murphy, remained outside.

Miss Ziegler was inside 15 minutes when Henry Cox, an employee who admitted her, and Miss Murphy heard two shots. Miss Murphy ran away and disappeared. Cox summoned M. E. Ames of Yonkers, one of Burnham's superintendents, who had left the office a short time before.

They found Miss Ziegler dead, a pistol wound in her right temple. Burnham was found with a wound in his right temple but still was breathing. He died at Bellevue hospital at 1 o'clock this morning without having regained consciousness.

Mr. Burnham, a civil leader at Deloitte, Fraser and Smith, and his wife lived on his estate, Riverview, and an active member of the Christian Science church there, and the girl's parents were notified.

The story of the tragedy was related by acquaintances of both families.

Burnham, they said, met Miss Ziegler about the time of his marriage. Burnham frequently resided at one of his Manhattan clubs for several days at a time and they accepted his tale that he was a bachelor.

Wife Learned of It.

Mrs. Ziegler said she had advised Relene not to marry him, as she asserted he had asked her, because he drank.

Recently Burnham attempted to discontinue his affair with Miss Ziegler. He told men friends that his wife had learned of their relationship and had declared he must renounce the girl or his family.

TOOK GUNS TO BARN AFTER HE KILLED GIRL

once, and then seeing her body lying on the floor. "George has done it," he exclaimed he said here. Stupefied for the moment he stood stock still. He saw the guns were gone and Hanecey was not in the house. A little later neighbors were called.

When a call was dispatched to authorities in Bismarck late in the afternoon it was presumed that Hanecey had taken the guns for his protection and fled. It was a half hour or so after the neighbors came in that Hanecey's body was found in the hayloft.

Feeling Ran High.

The bodies were brought to Bismarck last night on a Soo train. Feeling was high among the neighbors, who were prepared to spread a net over the country in search for the slayer, before his body was found. A neighbor farmer brought a second huggy to the farm so that the body of the girl and the man would not be taken to the station at Baldwin in the same conveyance.

Hanecey had been at the Albertson home since last fall, helping Albertson at times—but being sort of a guest without particular invitation, the father said. A small man, with a slight accent—he was Danish by birth and had lived in Sweden before coming to this country—he was not inclined to talk much, except at times, was Morose.

Recently, Mr. Albertson said, he would sit for two or three hours at a time, saying nothing, but staring into space. He also declined to eat meals with the family, saying he was not hungry, but later would ask for food. Mr. Albertson declared Hanecey was a woman hater, having had an unsuccessful love affair in Sweden many years ago. His girl, he said, did not like to have Hanecey hanging around in the house so much, but declared that he had made no advances to her. He also complained at times he was sick, and would be morose and almost sullen.

Reports came from the neighborhood that Hanecey had annoyed the girl.

Hanecey had been invited to stay at the place this winter, Mr. Albertson said. The man had been in Wilton. He had been at the Albertson home since the harvest. He left Bismarck about a year or year and a half ago, going to Wilton. He was employed there at times as a special policeman by Marshall Jim Jensen, formerly on the Bismarck police force. His trade was that of a painter. Jensen declared Hanecey was a woman hater and believed that he committed the act while temporarily insane.

Tragedy stalked the Albertson home in the past. Two sons perished while rescuing their father from a well some years ago. His wife died about a year ago. The Albertsons, one of the best known and respected families in the Baldwin neighborhood, have lived on their present farm near Baldwin for about seven years. Previously they lived near Wilton. There are surviving in the family the father, two sons, Alfred, working in Washburn; Erick, in Michigan, and Miss Dagmar, working and attending school in Bismarck. Ellen Albertson, the slain girl, had also worked in Bismarck.

Served Prison Term
The history of Hanecey as shown by the state prison record is as follows:

He was born in Copenhagen, Denmark, was born on the 28th day of April and would have been 37 years on next April 28. He had a common school education, had belonged to the Lutheran church, and was a painter and decorator by trade. Neither father nor mother were living on April 28, 1916. He was 5 feet 7 inches tall. He gave the name of his father as Fred Hammeken. He lived with his parents until he was 18 years old. He had been six years in North Dakota before he was arrested. "He was of medium-dark complexion, medium chestnut hair, big blue eyes, and his mouth was rather large. He gave as his nearest relative, Everett, at Tacoma, Washington."

He was sentenced on May 22, 1916, from Minot, on a plea of guilty to a charge of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill. The sentence was for a period of three years and six months, having been given by Judge K. E. Eighon. R. A. Nestos, now Governor, was states attorney of Ward county at the time. The girl he tried to kill was Alma Nelson of Minot. He was discharged from the penitentiary October 25, 1918.

Stayed in Bismarck
After his discharge from prison here, Hanecey remained in Bismarck. He had a sign painting shop on Second street.

He was frequently seen around the police station, had done some painting there and often accompanied Jim Jensen, night officer, on rounds two or three years ago.

Chief of Police Martison declared that Hanecey never was a police star. He said he had served as a special policeman on one of two occasions when large crowds were in town, particularly on "Wilson day" here when many men were sworn in for police duty. He declared that Hanecey was told a year and a half ago to stay away from the police station, and that after that he left Bismarck. He also declared Hanecey never answered the police phone and never made an arrest.

Hanecey, he said, came up on one occasion and helped night officers when they were attacked.

Funeral in Bismarck
Following the inquest late today Miss Albertson's body will be taken to Baldwin for burial beside the grave of her mother.

An effort was being made to locate relatives of the murderer.

Dance at Patterson Hall Wednesday and Saturday evenings.

EARLY SETTLER CLOSES CAREER

H. A. Archambault Came to Dakota Territory in 1866

Fort Yates, N. D., March 31.—Burial here of Hermidas A. Archambault, 83, closed the earthly career of one of the earliest pioneers of the two Dakotas, the dead man having settled at the Grand River agency in South Dakota in 1866.

Born in Quebec, Mr. Archambault came to Vermont in 1861, working his way west to Ohio, Wisconsin, and Iowa. He filled a contract for making ties for a railroad that was pushing on from Clinton to Des Moines.

After this he joined a group of pioneers going to the northwest, and landed in Sioux City, Iowa, in the fall of 1864. The next spring he came up the Missouri river to the vicinity of Fort Sully, returning to Sioux City on the last boat down river in 1865.

He felt the same lure that had drawn a relative on the famous Manuel Lisa expedition which wintered near the site of Fort Yates in 1812-13, and who was killed by Indians. Hence 1866 saw him established as a settler on the Grand river in South Dakota.

To N. D. in 1875

In 1875 he came to Fort Yates, in what is now North Dakota. The following year he homesteaded a claim on Beaver creek in Emmons county. He built a toll bridge across Beaver creek and later the bridge to Emmons county. For 13 years he was postmaster at Emmonsburg, and was keenly interested in politics.

Returning to South Dakota in 1893 Mr. Archambault settled on the Grand river at a point known as Spotted Horn Bull camp, and ranched there several years. In 1911 he settled at Thunder Hawk, S. D., where he engaged in the hardware business.

He was married three times, his last wife having died in 1904. Seven sons, two daughters, 42 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren survive.

A throng of people attended the funeral here and old settlers of this section acted as pall bearers.

"Love Ad" Marriage Objected To By Boy's Mother

Peoria, Ill., Mar. 31.—Aid of federal authorities to bring George Gould, 30 years old, and Mrs. John Haney from Baker, N. D., was to be asked today by Mrs. Victor Risk of this city, she said. Gould, Mrs. Risk said, had been "camped" by Mrs. Haney, whose husband was killed in an automobile here last Saturday as the result of a "love ad" inserted in newspapers, according to the woman.

The son went to North Dakota and advertised for "a nice girl who would like to farm." His elder brother, John, who is in North Dakota, got a wife through an ad in a farm journal, Mrs. Risk said. Mrs. Haney answered George's "love ad" and told him she was free and ready to go west with him.

They went to get married in Devils Lake, N. D.

After the pair had gone to North Dakota it was learned that Mrs. Haney's husband was still living here. He also became interested in the search and was about to start in pursuit of his wife, when he was killed.

JAPAN AND U.S. REACH ACCORD

Famous Lansing-Ishi Pact Is Nullified

Washington, March 31.—The celebrated Lansing-Ishi agreement by which the United States in 1917 recognized Japan's special interest in China has been canceled by mutual agreement of the Washington and Tokyo governments.

In disposing of the agreement and substituting for it the principles of the document subscribed to by the nine powers—the United States, Japan, China, Great Britain, France, Italy, Portugal, The Netherlands and Belgium—the American and Japanese governments accept a parity of interest in China and at the same time do away with an agreement that was a source of controversy from the day it was announced.

Loot Recovered.
Police recovered cigars, candy and other articles valued at upwards of $20 which were stolen from the Smith grocery on Fifth street a few days ago. The loot was traced and found hidden near a building on the south side. Boys were responsible, police say.

ACCUSE GUARDS OF COMPANY

Marion, Ill., Mar. 31.—On a foundation of testimony that accused guards of the Southern Illinois Coal Company's pit of intimidation and assault the defense in the second of the Herrin riot trials today was ready to present witnesses, whose testimony would deal with the riots itself.

After the state rested its case yesterday the defense called 13 witnesses, mostly farmers and their wives, living in the vicinity of the pit, who charged the guards with various offenses.

YOUR WILL POWER

It takes death to enable us to appraise people at their real worth. Sarah Bernhardt has passed into history. With the perspective of only a few days, the thought probably is occurring to many of you, that Sarah Bernhardt the woman was a greater character and even more interesting than Sarah Bernhardt.

Years from now her name will be spoken as we of today refer to Lotta, Booth and other theatrical stars of the long ago. And at that future date, when young people ask you about the Divine Sarah, the indelible impression that will come to you first will be the way she battled to keep alive.

Time after time, for months, the greatest medical specialists of Europe "gave her up." But Bernhardt fought on. Her refusal to die, her tenacious clinging to life by sheer determination, was a rare example of the power of mind over matter.

Death won the fight—finally. But Sarah Bernhardt heroically held death at bay for weeks. The power of mind over matter is mighty, but death is the ultimate victor over every living thing.

Any one who had followed the career of Sarah Bernhardt knew that she would "die hard." Her will power, as much as her natural genius and her excellent training, made her career a great one. For, in her early years on the stage, she encountered disappointments, money difficulties and failures that would have discouraged most of us to quit.

Bernhardt was 22 before Doucet "discovered" her. Real fame began to come by the time she was 25. Her will power had kept her going until her training and talent won recognition. While success came comparatively early, she had been battling since she was a precocious child of 14.

Early in the World War, Bernhardt had an accident, considered slight at the time. Given the choice of having her leg amputated or quitting the stage, she chose amputation.

How many women, with one leg off at the knee, would have the courage to appear in public at all, let alone on the stage where thousands of eyes would be fastened on her as the star?

Will power, thy other name is Bernhardt.

From the career of Sarah Bernhardt, we learn two important and helpful things:

First: The power of mind over matter.

Second: Success is due as much (possibly more) to will power as to natural ability, training, education and influence.

The mightiest force within you is your will power. Do not underestimate it.

IN THE INTEREST OF FAIRNESS

The columns of a newspaper through advertising space and a "People's Forum" are open to expression of thoughts by individuals and organizations which may or may not square with the convictions of the newspaper. It is the duty of a newspaper to provide this means of expression, and in furtherance of this policy The Tribune has not hesitated to give space to persons vigorously attacking the attitude of the newspaper in some respect.

The Tribune has been loathe to even suggest curtailment of manner of expression. There is an interest, however, which is above that of the newspaper or any individual or set of individuals—the welfare of the city at large. The interests of the city at large cannot be served if slander of character and libel are permitted to find expression in the newspaper, either in advertising or in the "People's Forum." It is difficult to draw the line, but it has been stepped over in the past both in advertising and in the "People's Forum." For the good of the city at large, The Tribune, so far as it is able to judge correctly, hopes to prevent such an occurrence in the future.

ACTION IS NECESSARY

The sympathy of all the people of Bismarck will go out to the relatives of Ellen Albertson, brutally murdered in her home. It is not infrequent that communities are thrown into horror and tragedy by such a brutal crime. Murder is becoming so common that serious-thinking people are alarmed.

There are probably thousands of morons loose in the country, particularly in the large cities. Most of the brutal attacks upon women are traced to the absolute lack of moral fiber in the attacker. Such men are let out of penitentiaries or other institutions on pardon or parole; many receive light sentences for acts of moral depravity and a crime which startles a community follows.

Sympathy nor expressions of horror will not curb a repetition of such crimes. Only the most stringent action by authorities, by the courts and by institutions. A short sentence for a person of such character, or a pardon or parole, is to endanger the life of some innocent girl such as was victim of the crime yesterday.

SLAVES

When the old Egyptians buried Kink Tut, they put in his tomb a lot of "ushabti," statues of people a few inches tall. These were supposed to come to life as slaves, to wait on Tut in the underworld. Same principle as burying food and weapons with the dead, a custom that our Indians also had.

If Tut could come to life today, also his slave-statues, he would trade the whole batch of them for a fillover. You have real wizards as your slaves when you drive an auto, ride in a street car or press a button that operates anything electrical.

EDITORIAL REVIEW

Comments reproduced in this column may or may not express the opinion of The Tribune. They are presented here in order that our readers may have both sides of important issues which are being discussed in the press of the day.

EXPENSIVE WINDJAMMING

For two months last winter from a vantage point we watched the lower house of the legislature operate and at the end of the session we wondered why in tunket anyone would want to a member of that body, or the senate, either. Many undoubtedly think membership in the legislature is a sinecure, but it is far from it, if the member is to even half way to the work his constituents expect of him.

During most of the time when the House is not in session, members are attending committee meetings or studying the bills introduced, and investigating the laws to be amended or their effect on present laws, and other points the conscientious member will desire to know in order to vote intelligently. Then, toward the end there are sessions, noon and night, and on top of it all one has to listen for hours every day to the senseless twaddle of members who are constantly trying to "make political medicine" regardless of the fact that the cost of the legislature is about $5 a minute, or who don't know what they are talking about, but talk talk, anyway.

It's no wonder the governor wants to cut down the membership. But such a movement would have the merit of curtailing the number of useless spellbinders, anyway.

In every session there are about one-third of the members who "do things," another third who blindly follow some bellweather, and a third more who might just as well be at home, for they never do anything that is apparently useful beyond voting "right" when instructed by the rulers behind the scenes, so it would seem the membership of the legislature could be cut in half without injuring the service or improperly having the various sections of the state represented. Even though such a course did not cut expenses very much it would be a great saving of nerves for the remaining members and the spectators who drop in to "see the wheels go around." Beach Advance.

ADVENTURE OF THE TWINS

By Olive Barton Roberts

The very next person the Twins met in Sugarplum Land was the Easter Bunny.

There he was in a fine red coat, hopping along with a large basket on each arm.

"Goodness, I've lost my calendar," he was saying over and over to himself. "I can't remember where I put it."

Then catching sight of the Twins he hopped up alongside and said lightly, "Excuse me for not tipping my hat, but my hands are otherwise engaged. I wish to ask if you happen to know where I can find a calendar. I can't remember whether I put mine in the refrigerator, down the cellar hole or on the roof. And now I can't tell when Easter comes."

"We don't have a calendar with us," Nancy told him, "but we can ask Mr. Peabody, the Moon-Man, if you like. He fixes dates for everybody."

"Oh, thank you," remarked the Easter Bunny hastily. "Don't go to so much trouble. No doubt I'll find it. But one has to be careful. If, by any chance, I left the Easter baskets under the parlor curtains on April Fools' Day instead of Easter, it would be shocking. The kiddies would think I was fooling them. It would be just as bad for Santa Claus to fill their stockings on the Fourth of July."

"We are going to the Cut-out Ladies' house," said Nancy. "We can ask her. Perhaps she has a calendar on her wrong side, as she was out of a magazine."

Suddenly the Easter Bunny set his baskets down and began patting himself all over. He believed, I do believe," he really believed. "I have that calendar on me somewhere. I think I put it yes, sir! Here it is! Why Easter comes on the first day of April. It's on April Fools' Day after all!"

Solidity more complete than that which I shared with these two men I have never imagined. I read the newspapers, which we obtained with difficulty from the neighboring village, read of myself as the most notorious criminal at large, read of all the world-famed detectives of London, Paris and New York who had sworn to effect my capture, read of my crimes, my daring, my cunning, read of all these things outside my shanty on the hillside—and smiled. Given a certain amount of resignation and patience, and I knew very well that I was safe as long as I chose.

One day a chance incident set me thinking. We had paused for a second to fill our pipes with filthy tobacco, barely a dozen yards round one of the hairpin corners of the forest road, leaving our wagons, as usual, in the middle of the thoroughfare. Suddenly a cat swung round the corner, traveling too fast for the driver to apply his brakes with safety. With great skill he passed us, grazing the long trunks of the lopped trees and escaping the precipice by a matter of inches. That night I saw that Pierre and Jacques drank more than their usual

"GRAIN KING" PRAISES SCHOOL

Only 12 years ago, E. L. Bingham, Winnipeg's famous "Grain King," was a student at Dakota Business College, Fargo, N. D. Someone called Bingham's rise a "miracle," recently. He replied: "No, only did what I was trained to do, in the way I was trained to do it."

THE FIRST EASTER

In the end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre.

And, behold, there was a great earthquake; for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow.

And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not yet; for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified.

He is not here; for he is risen, as he said.

Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead; and, behold, he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him; lo, I have told you.

And they departed quickly from the sepulchre with fear and great joy; and did run to bring his disciples word.

And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came and held him by the feet, and worshipped him.

Then said Jesus unto them, Be not afraid; go tell my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shall see me.—St. Matthew, XXVIII:1-10.

MICHAEL'S WEDDING GIFT
BY E. PHILLIPS OPPENHEIM
Copyright, 1922, by E. Phillips Oppenheim

Vendetta begins between MICHAEL SAGERS, noted criminal, and SIR NORMAN GREYVES, one of Scotland Yard, when Sagers, beautiful housemaid, JANET, saves him from Sir Norman by shooting dead an officer sent to arrest him. Janet becomes Sagers' wife and accomplice.

Janet takes passage to Marseilles, where a confederate of Sagers, named Louis Martin, is jealous of Janet and plots against her. Greyves, following on the trail of Michael, traces him to his place of residence in Marseilles. It develops that Sagers has eluded his pursuers by disguising a confederate as himself and leaving him at the residence. Greyves reaches Michael's hiding place just in time to rescue Janet. He is wounded by a shot from Sagers' revolver. Sagers escapes.

For many months after my somewhat ingenious escape from the cafe Madame Ponardure in the Mariage, I spent my days in the Mariage, in the Fort du Dom, on the far side of Ilyeres, the life of a dog. There were three of us woodmen in the hut—Pierre, Jacques and myself.

Solidity more complete than that which I shared with these two men I have never imagined. I read the newspapers, which we obtained with difficulty from the neighboring village, read of myself as the most notorious criminal at large, read of all the world-famed detectives of London, Paris and New York who had sworn to effect my capture, read of my crimes, my daring, my cunning, read of all these things outside my shanty on the hillside—and smiled. ÉVERETT TRUE BY CONDO

AREN'T YOU AWARE THAT THOSE STORIES YOU SMOKED ARE EXTREMELY INJURIOUS?

NO, I HAVEN'T FOUND THAT THEY INJURE ME ANY, MR. TRUE.

BUT YOU'RE NOT THE ONLY ONE IN THIS OFFICE !!!

would take it. One of us would bring it up here, here where there are a hundred hiding places, in the ground, the trees, the cracks of the earth. A pocketbook which is lost, is lost. What do you say, comrades?"

There was no doubt about how the scene appealed to them.

"It would be an equal share between the three?" Pierre urged.

"Between the three?" I agreed. "Leave the details to me."

We went to our work the next morning with a new zest. All the time that we were at work in the forest we were thinking of what fortune might have in store for us on our homeward crawl. We crawled round each corner, loitering at the psychological spot always with the same evil hope in our hearts.

The affair, however, was not so easy. Sometimes we were seen from above or below; sometimes drivers were too careful. On the fourth day, however, success rewarded our perseverance. A small automobile which I had spotted from a distance came round the corner where we were, so to speak, anchored, driven with that full measure of recklessness which only a Frenchman, anxious to have his engine, can obtain. There was a wild cry from the driver, a crash into our wagon, and over went the automobile and man down the side of the precipice.

It was I who clambered down to where our victim was lying, and drew a pleasing-looking black pocketbook from the inside of his coat. Afterward I felt his heart, and discovered that he was still alive. I ordered Pierre to move the wagons over to our side of the road, and we secreted the pocketbook among the logs we were carrying. Presently a public touring car from Cannes, on its way to Ilyeres, arrived. The accident was explained; room was made for the injured man; and a liberal pourboire was given us, collected among the passengers. We then made our way home, and later on, when we had lighted our evening fire, we opened the pocketbook. I divided the money into three portions, but I spoke to them as a master.

"Listen, Jacques and you, Pierre," I said, "I am a man of justice, but although I am one of you, I have traveled beyond these forests, and I know the world. If you take this money with you to the village to-night, you will be drunk, the truth will be known and we shall all go to prison. I will swear to you the swiftest oath, the oath across the flames, that your share shall be saved. But go to the village to-night with 20 francs each, the pourboire given us by the Englishmen, and let me keep the rest for you, or hide it for yourselves."

They had just sufficient wit to realize that I was their superior in intelligence and that my advice was good. So we groveled an oath in the strange dialect of those parts, and I gripped their gnarled and spotted hands, which reminded me always of the roots of the trees we felled.

Our next adventure, engineered in similar fashion to the last, brought us a matter of a couple of thousand francs. This time, however, there was trouble, for the driver's neck was broken as he pitched head foremost from the seat of his car; and his wife, who was only slightly injured, gave vigorous evidence as to the position of our wagon and the disappearance of her husband's pocketbook after we had dragged his body up from a ledge of the precipice. A gendarme from the neighboring village visited us that same night and made a careful search through our belongings. There was nothing to be found however, and by preserving a stolid silence and leaving all speech to me, my companions escaped suspicion just as I did. Afterward, however, I spoke to them seriously.

"Comrades," I pointed out, "this game is too good to last. For a time we must go warily. Afterward we will seek one more adventure, which we must select with great care, for it will be my last. If it is successful, I shall leave you. Afterward you two had better bury your savings in the ground and abandon the game, for it needs brains to be made successful, and you two have not the brains of a rabbit between you."

They knew that I was right, and they held their peace. It was a month later, indeed, before we made our last coup, and it ended in a very different fashion from what I had anticipated. From my lookout above the wagons, I saw a gray touring car, piled with luggage and golf-clubs, approaching from the direction of Cannes. There was a girl in front, seated by the driver, and an elderly gentleman behind. I called down to the others.

"Comrades, this is our chance," I announced. "Note the wagons on around the corner, and be prepared for what may happen."

What did happen was not in the least what I had expected. From where I lay, crouching amongst the scrub, I could see that something was wrong with the car. The chauffeur was rocking in his seat, and the car was swaying from side to side.

But it was the girl's face from which I could not remove my eyes. She must have fully realized the danger she was in, but she showed not the slightest signs of fear. She leaned over and tried to put on the foot-brake, succeeding so far, in fact as momentarily to check the progress of the car. The chauffeur, suddenly seizing his opportunity, jumped from his seat and rolled over in the dust. The girl's foot apparently slipped from the brake, and the car once more gathered speed.

I saw her eyes, as the car came bumping down the hill, heard the wild shouting and exclamations of the old gentleman behind, and there came to me one of those extraordinary moments which I make no attempt to explain.

I half slid, half scrambled, down the slope into the road, drew in my breath, poised myself for a great effort, and at the psychological moment leaped for the front splash-board. I found myself sprawling across the seat, but my left hand was upon the wheel. We were within two inches of the precipice after my jump, and we just touched the father side of the road with my grab at the wheel. I righted the car without much difficulty, applied the brake, gently but with increasing force, took the corner with a moderate skid and brought the car to a standstill within a few feet of the wagon. When the girl saw it, the first look of fear crept into her face.

EASTER MARKS RESURRECTION OF SAVIOR

the Oldest Festival on The Christian Calendar

Easter, commemorating to the Christian believer the Resurrection of the Saviour of mankind; and, to the secular mind, the formal opening of the springtime season; but observed as a festival of joy and feasting by both is the oldest of all the festivals in the Christian calendar.

It is the day which marked the beginning of the preaching of the Gospel of Christ. Easter even antedates Christmas as a fixed event; for, into a day of the Resurrection has been observed from the foundation of the Christian religion, it was not until four centuries later that the natal day of Jesus of Nazareth began to be celebrated.

Not less a fixed event than Easter is Good Friday, commemorative of the day of the Crucifixion and observed on the Friday immediately preceding the Easter festival. Its religious importance has been attached by Christian communities in later years to Long, or Good or God's Friday, as it is variously known. It is probably, as the day on which Christ offered up his life for the redemption of the world, the most sacred and solemn of the Christian year. In fact of the Christian year, that day is the day on which the Cross is draped in black and the hangings are all of a similar sombre hue, and the day is given over largely by the devout to prayer and meditation. This note of sacredness and solemnity is reflected even in the affairs of the secular world, many of the state of the union in reference to its deeply religious significance, having made it a legal holiday. The custom of celebrating the day is involved in obscurity, except for the fact that it is the day on which Christ was nailed to the Cross on the Hill of Golgotha; but from the earliest times, every Friday among Christians has been regarded as a fast day, as every Sunday has been a feast day; and the connection between the one as marking the day of the Crucifixion and the other as marking the day of the Resurrection, is easily traced.

One of the most interesting facts in connection with Easter is that its origin dates back to the old Jewish Festival of the Passover. According to a church historian: "The first Christians being derived from or intimately connected with the Jewish church, naturally continued to observe the Jewish festivals, though in new spirit, as commemorative of events of which those had been shadows. The Passover, emblemized by the thought of Christ as the true Paschal Lamb, continued to be celebrated, and became the Christian Easter."

Early differences arose as to the precise day on which the Easter festival should be observed. In the Jewish calendar the Passover occurs on a fixed day of the month; while the Christians, from the earliest days, observed the Easter Festival at a fixed time of the week, namely, Sunday, that being the first day of the week and the day, according to Scripture upon which Christ rose from the dead. Astronomical problems of a confusing character were largely responsible for these differences, which continued until the year 325 A. D., when the Council of Nicea decreed that everywhere in Christendom Easter should be celebrated on the same day. But it was not until the adoption of the Gregorian Calendar in 1582 that this decree secured anything like general acceptance; and even to this day in the churches of Greece and Russia as well as in some of the Oriental congregations where the modern calendar has not been accepted the date of Easter varies.

SIXTY-FIVE MILLION AMERICANS WILL ATTEND CHURCH SERVICES TOMORROW

Sixty-five million Americans, professing membership in the churches or Sunday schools of the nation, will go to church services tomorrow—Easter Sunday.

Of these forty-five millions—just a little less than half the population of the country—comparatively few are agnostics or atheists. Most of them are people who through carelessness, or indifference, or diversion, have neglected the religious side of their nature.

Easter commemorates the resurrection of Christ from the sepulchre. It comes in the spring, when everywhere about us the spirit of resurrection is symbolized by nature. It should suggest to every one of us that this is the time for the resurrection of our spiritual natures. The Christian church is the open door to realization of resurrection. It stands waiting to develop us spiritually. This would be a far better world to live in if all of us were attending church regularly.

Go to church on Easter. You'll feel a lot better if you do. Your soul needs food, too, you must know. Satisfy your spiritual hunger. Go to church on Easter.

By Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick, Pastor, First Presbyterian Church of New York

By Rt. Rev. Joseph Schreimbs, Bishop of Catholic Diocese of Cleveland

Go to church on Easter!

That is not the whole of Christianity—not by a long sea-mile! Being a Christian extends through seven days every week, twelve months a year, and it affects a man's whole life, from his secret thoughts, to his business methods and his citizenship.

Because the finest elements in our American life came from the influence of Jesus Christ, and Easter is the festival of his victory. Because civilization's deepest need is the triumph of real Christianity and Easter is Christianity's rallying day.

Because this is one of the most spiritually restful generations in human history, and the message of Easter—a victorious spiritual life which can conquer trouble, sin and death—is the message that modern men and women need.

Because you yourself have the old human needs for faith in God, in power to carry on, and hope of life eternal, and Easter should have a personal message for you.

Go to church on Easter!

Churches Celebrate Day of Joy and Feasting With Special Easter Musical Programs

Something of the joy and happiness felt by the people of the Christian world is expressed by them in the Easter Sunday musical programs. All the churches of the city have planned something for their Sunday services which will make the day distinct from other days of the year.

An important feature of the day's church services will be the cantatas and special musical services in which the best talent of the city will take part.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH. Sunrise prayer meeting at 7:00 o'clock, led by the Christian Endeavor, open to all.

The session will meet in the Sunday school rooms at 10:00 o'clock to receive new members into the church. All are cordially invited to the services of the church.

Mrs. Fred Hanson will have Junior Endeavor Easter service Sunday at 9:30, instead of the regular junior Sunday school.

20 Million Women and Girls in Europe Denied Husbands

consciously—present in the sexual nature of a woman than of a man; and that in consequence the satisfaction of that impulse is to a great extent the satisfaction of a need which makes the disproportionate number of women in any country a real tragedy.

"I realize the cruelty of a civilization in which war and its accessories create an artificial excess of women over men and in consequence deprive many women of motherhood."

STEPS TAKEN TO AID LUCKLESS CHILDREN

To attribute the increase in illegitimacy to this yearning for motherhood is at least the charitable viewpoint.

Legislation has been undertaken in several countries including England, Norway, Sweden and Germany to require fathers to support children born out of wedlock and to make such children's right more broad and secure. But France and the Latin countries are doing nothing along this line though legitimate births decrease while illegitimacy increases.

The various countries are striving in diverse ways to stimulate the birthrate among the married. In France, for instance, 33 business associations combine to pay a million employees bonuses for each child. Christiana, the capital of Norway, pays pensions to widows, women divorced or separated from their husbands and unmarried women who have children.

Single girls and women who must support themselves are finding it increasingly difficult to obtain employment or to hold jobs.

Millions were engaged in war work or in replacing men who went to war; the armistice, the return of the soldiers and the industrial slump threw the majority of these out of jobs.

WOMEN FORCED TO COMPETE WITH MEN

Those that remained had to compete with men. They found the soldiers demanding their places back. Those that held their jobs found their pay cut. Many were given the choice of showing personal favors to unscrupulous superiors or seeking work elsewhere.

Laws passed for the protection of women workers proved a handicap to them; employers rather than comply with statutes requiring creature comforts or forbidding night work discharged the women and hired men.

Willingness of many women to work for less than men demanded soon developed. This resulted in many instances in reduced wages for men supporting families. It kept single men from marrying.

Unquestionably thousands of women have died of starvation, or of diseases bred of hunger! but many others have taken "the easy way," with the result that divorce records, as in England, show more homes broken up by unfaithfulness of husbands.

The woman lucky enough to have a husband has to fight to hold him. WOMEN ARE BALKED IN FIGHT FOR RIGHTS.

The 20,000,000 superfluous women stand in the path of political progress of their own sex.

The law of supply and demand seems to operate herein as elsewhere. The more wheat there is, the less the farmers can get for it. The more women there are, the less they can get for themselves.

So women politically have added little to the gains they made in the way of equal suffrage and equal rights before the war. They have less political influence, if anything. France, for instance, recently voted down woman suffrage.

In 40 or 50 years after two or three generations—fathers probably will readjust themselves. Europe's attitude seems to be: "Let Nature take its course."

dicte the pink bollworm, the citrus canker, and the Parlatioris date scale. The other recently established pests, including the European corn borer, the Japanese beetle, the pine blister, etc., are recognized now as permanent factors in the agriculture of the country, and for these, retardation of spread is the only hope left.

This eradication and control work is being conducted by the Federal Horticultural Board and involves an annual expenditure of upwards of $2,000,000.

Farm Pests Cost Billion Each Year

Washington, March 30.—A billion dollars a year is the board bill of uninvited farm and fruit pests which have come to the United States from foreign lands, according to Chairman C. L. Marlatt of the Federal Horticultural Board. Two hours of every day's work on the farm or in the garden and orchard goes to feed the guests, Dr. Marlatt says.

There are at least 100 major plant pests and many hundreds of minor pests which have been imported, but there are thousands of other pests, insect and plant, that have not gained entry into the United States and which the Federal Horticultural Board is endeavoring to keep out.

Fifteen quarantines are being enforced now, and in connection with these, efforts are under way to eradicate the pink bollworm, the citrus canker, and the Parlatioris date scale.

Most every one who realizes how effective Kellogg's Bran is for the permanent relief of constipation has their own particular way of serving this wonderful cereal. Most families eat it as a cereal with milk or cream.

Others sprinkle it on their favorite hot or cold cereal. Every one enjoys its nut-like flavor!

If you are cooking a hot cereal try this method:—Measure off two tablespoonfuls for each member of the family. Mix it with the cereal and cook as you always cook the cereal.

Kellogg's Bran is scientifically prepared and ready to eat, but its regular use is in no way impaired if you cook it with other cereals.

Kellogg's Bran has won the friendly recommendation of physicians because it does give prompt and permanent relief from mild or chronic constipation and because it can be eaten without forming a habit. Again, Kellogg's Bran will free you from drastic, dangerous cathartics.

When constipation conditions exist in your system or when you are threatened, do not take half-way measures. Foods with a partial bran content cannot free you! What you must have is Kellogg's Bran because it is ALL BRAN! Go the limit; get relief!

Every member of your family will delight in eating Bran raisin bread, muffins, pancakes, macaroons, etc. Rejoice on every package.

Start eating Bran to-day! Get well—keep well—keep disease out of your home! First-class hotels, clubs and restaurants serve Kellogg's Bran in individual packages. All grocers.

On January 30, the customs house was closed for all commercial operations, and no goods can be imported until it has been proved that they are not in the category of those whose import has been forbidden by order of the Soviet government.

The opinion was expressed at a meeting of the Far Eastern board of communications that the monopoly of foreign trade by the government as a political weapon against the capitalist countries, would not give the same result in the Far East as it would on the Western front, owing to the fact that the one nation whose frontiers march with those of Russia is China, and "the political opinion of China is dictated by the Western World."

FLOATING DEBT INCREASED.

Berlin, Mar. 31.—Germany's floating debt increased by 1,455 billion marks in the second 10 days of March. The total flotation thereby reached was 5,800 billion marks.

Harding's Chances For Another Term

One blast from the bugle of Harry Daugherty sets the wild echoes flying in every corner of the land. The Attorney-General's confident declaration that President Harding will be renominated without opposition, and will be "again overwhelmingly elected," is a signal that the political shooting for the next Presidential campaign is now in order. Why the Harding hat should be "shied" into the ring so early puzzles some observers, who wonder if certain rivals are getting this notice to keep out. Some sort of contest seems indicated, we are assured, and with the President making twenty speeches in defense of his policies, and constructing planks for a reelection platform; with Senator W. E. Borah outlining his own policies, both foreign and domestic, in a series of well-advertised speeches; and with Hiram Johnson coming back from Europe "preparing to fight in a spectacular way," as a paper in his State puts it, it is clear enough to the Baltimore Sun, "that we shall not have a dull political summer. An exciting, if not enjoyable, time will probably be had by all."

Read THE LITERARY DIGEST this week for all of the interesting comments regarding President Harding's chances of reelection.

"I saw a good one in FUN from the PRESS" at the Grand Theater this week," said a toastmaster recently. "A little chap climbed on his father's knee and said, 'Daddy, can you still do tricks?' Somewhat surprised, the sire asked, 'Why, what do you mean, son, 'do tricks?'" And in all innocence the little lad responded, "Well mama says that when you were young you used to drink like a fish." The audience roared an approval of laughter and the usual early chill of such an occasion was dispelled.

TELL HOW TO RAISE DOLLARS

LETTER FROM LESLIE HAMILTON TO SALLY ATHERTON

DEAR, DEAR SALLY: I am writing to you because I know you of all my friends will be the one who can appreciate my feelings at this time.

I spent the evening with Bee the other night and she told me that you and your young husband seem to be perfect nappies. Of course I cannot understand your reticence which you call the economic independence of women, and I was quite horrified when Bee told me that you intended to keep your position as private secretary for Mr. Sampson, after you were married, although your husband was perfectly able to care for you adequately on his salary.

Indeed, Sally dear, I think that Mr. Atherton is getting quite as much money as Jack, and we are not only planning on making quite a home, but of entertaining a little as well.

Bee tells me that you also were very conventional in your wedding arrangements. That with the exception of herself, no one was present at the ceremony, which was merely a civil service at the city hall immediately after the license had been obtained.

I was quite surprised the other day to find that my young sister, Alice, seemed to have been vaccinated with the same radical idea in regard to marriage and married life. I am so very tired with all this hubbub and bustle over my own marriage, that I am almost ready to sympathize with both of you. However, you know mother, and you know she never would be happy unless she made all Sharon society sit up and take notice of the marriage of her oldest daughter. Besides, I have heard many an old married woman tell with great joy of the pomp of her wedding. Mother has ceased never to bewail the fact that her marriage was an elopement.

I am going to tell you something, Sally dear, that I have not dared to mention to anyone else. It does seem rather incongruous to have a twenty thousand dollar wedding trousseau, among which there are a number of things I know I never shall need as the wife of a comparatively poor man, and then have to live on almost as little as I had

LETTER FROM LESLIE HAMILTON TO SALLY AHTERTON
DEAR, DEAR SALLY:
I am writing to you because I know you of all my friends will be the one who can appreciate my feelings at this time.

I spent the evening with Bee the other night and she told me that you and your young husband seem to be perfectly happy. Of course I cannot understand, dear, your selfish which you call the economic independence of women, and I was quite horrified when Bee told me that you intended to keep your position as private secretary for Mr. Sampson after you were married, although your husband was perfectly able to care for you adequately on his salary.

Indeed, Sally dear, I think that Mr. Ahterton is getting quite as much money as is Jack, and we are not only planning on making quite a home, but of entertaining a little as well.

Bee tells me that you also were very unconventional in your wedding arrangements. That with the exception of herself, no one was present at the ceremony, which was merely a civil service at the city hall immediately after the license had been obtained.

I was quite surprised the other day to find that my young sister, Alice, seemed to have been fascinated with the same radical idea in regard to marriage and married life.

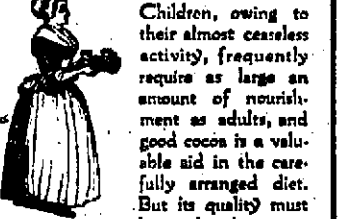

I am so very tired with all this hubbub and bustle over my own marriage, that I am almost ready to sympathize with both of you. However, you know mother, and you know she never would be happy unless she made all Sharon society sit up and take notice of the marriage of her oldest daughter. Besides, I have heard many an old married woman tell with great joy of the pomp of her wedding. Mother has ceased never to bewail the fact that her marriage was an elopement.

I am going to tell you something, Sally dear, that I have not dared to mention to anyone else. It does seem rather incongruous to have a twenty thousand dollar wedding trousseau, among which there are a number of things I know I never shall need as the wife of a comparatively poor man, and then have to live on almost as little as I had

is the ideal drink for growing children

Not only does its delicious flavor and aroma appeal to the palate but it supplies the body with a considerable amount of pure, wholesome and nutritious food.

Children, owing to their almost ceaseless activity, frequently require as large an amount of nourishment as adults, and good cocoa is a valuable aid in the carefully arranged diet. But its quality must be good and no cocoa can quite so well meet the requirements of dietitian, physician, nurse or housekeeper as "BAKER'S."

WITH THE CANDIDATES

FOR POLICE MAGISTRATE

I am a candidate for reelection on the platform of fair and impartial enforcement of all city ordinances and state laws. I have turned into the city treasury the past two years of my administration $2,300 over and above the expense of the office. If re-elected I will continue to run the office as in the past two years. I stand for law, order and justice, and a clean city.

W. C. CASHMAN.

FOR POLICE MAGISTRATE

There is just one platform for a candidate for police magistrate to take—that is to uphold the city ordinances and the state laws, to treat everyone with civility and to be fair to everyone. I believe a police magistrate should maintain the law and dignity of the office, and at the same time show all the mercy possible under law if it should be shown, especially in the cases of first offenders and children. My policy has been "Giving and Forgiving."

I have been a resident of this city and state for forty years and have served in the office of Police Magistrate. The records will show that the taxpayers of the city were not out one cent for the administration of my office, the cost being paid by the costs administered, but at the same time no effort was made to make a money-making proposition for the city in the administration of justice, and if elected I will

FOR CITY COMMISSION

I have been in Bismarck eighteen years, am a taxpayer and a rather large user of water and electricity. I am in favor of an adequate water system for the City, to be secured in some manner, (not mere talk). This matter has been discussed before every election I can remember, with no results, always the same old hunk and they have spent in the neighborhood of Forty Thousand Dollars for Attorneys and other expenses. There is something wrong with people always in court for in the finish they generally are forced to get together and settle it with fairness to both. If elected I will come up from time to time that your interest may at all times be protected.

I believe in the City getting value received for every dollar expended. If this is done taxes can be reduced, and I stand for good government and a clean city and am not against any city employee who has done his work well.

It certainly is time for the people to stop and consider matters when they go to the expense of a headquarters and a hundred workers for a little city election with apparently nothing in sight but to keep the city in its present moral state. The police and fire department is in the hands of Commissioner C. W. Henzler and the credit should be given him, if any, unless it is a fact that one of the Johns runs the running absolutely independent, without any jobs promised, no headquarters or campaign fund and if the voters of this city see fit to elect me I will aid and assist in every way to give the city an honest, efficient and economical administration.

F. W. MURPHY.

FOR CITY COMMISSION

Bismarck, N. D., March 29, 1923
To The Citizens of Bismarck: We wish to state that if continued in office we will proceed speedily to the end that the city shall own its own waterworks system in the shortest possible time. We also state that this will be accomplished at a fair price to the taxpayers of the city.

We desire further to state that when the time arrives to decide whether this plan shall be paid for by bonds or special assessment warrants the method of financing will be put up to you for advice and approval.

We feel and believe that the future growth, prosperity and development of the city and the interests of all its people depends greatly upon an adequate supply of pure water at a reasonable cost, in order that the health of the people may be safeguarded, ample fire protection be afforded, and opportunity be afforded for cheaper water for use to grow grass, trees and shrubbery on lawns and boulevards, thus improving property and adding to its attractiveness and value as well as the general beauty of the city.

We promise our best effort to this end, as well as our best effort and judgment in all matters which will come up from time to time that your interest may at all times be protected.

(Signed)

Water Plant Not the Only Issue To the Voters and Tax Payers:

After reading a statement in the Bismarck Tribune issued by the French & Larson Campaign Committee such article showing that our opponents are running together on the same platform and being managed by the same Campaign Committee and in view of the fact that the short platform which we announced was for the purpose of placing same on the ballot and not representing by any means all of the purposes for which we stand, we have conferred together to see how far we will be able to co-operate with each other on the commission if elected and we find ourselves in perfect accord on the following planks of a platform.

MUNICIPAL OWNED PUBLIC UTILITIES.

Our opponents state that they stand for a municipal ownership of waterworks "AND ALL PUBLIC UTILITIES." Any ten-year-old school child can understand the purpose of this plank in their platform. It is purely demagogic, deceitful, and made for ulterior purposes and they well know that the full extent of this platform will not and cannot be carried out for it means either the purchase or the installing of new and complete waterworks system, electric light system, telephone system and gas works. The mere statement of this fact how the deceitfulness and the cunningness of our opponents platform. We do not wish to insult the intelligence of the taxpayers or consumers of the various public utilities of the city by stating that we are for the installation, or owning of all of the public utilities in Bismarck, but to make ourselves clear on this issue we state positively that with reference to the water supply for the city we will use our best endeavor to carry out the wishes of the taxpayers and water consumers on this question and when we speak of taxpayers and water consumers we mean a majority of the people affected and not a group of office seekers and chronic payroll officials. If the people, after due consideration are for a new water system we are for it, if they are for purchasing the present plant and putting additions on same, we are for it, but the people must in a proper method instruct us as to their desires.

The water situation is not the only issue in this campaign. The appointive officers of the city are the administrative officers and their conduct of affairs have a great deal to do with the proper and economical administration of its affairs and also a big factor in increasing or decreasing taxation to the people. For this reason we pledge you that we will not be a party to the following transactions.

CITY ATTORNEY.

We will never vote for the confirmation of any attorney in the city or approve a salary for him unless he gives his attention to the city business. That it is against public policy and the best interests of the city and incompatible with the position for him to represent the city while he has a partner representing the other side of any litigation in which the city might be interested. This has been done in the past.

CHIEF OF POLICE.

As our opponents state in their platform that they are for a cleaner and better city, we also can subscribe to this motto and for this reason we will vote against the confirmation or against the employment of any person on our police force who does not come up to the required standard of character and integrity and we will be for employment as special policemen or plain clothesmen, citizens of Bismarck with good reputation and character and so far as we are concerned we will use every effort to check in advance the unfavorable comment and any slurs that might be cast upon the city or its citizens or its officials by the repetition of such appointments as that of the cold-blooded murderer services as policeman in the City of Bismarck. We will also endeavor to head off the appointment of men on the police force who are placed there, to guard the sanctity of our homes and property. Before we can have a cleaner city it will be necessary for us to have clean policemen. We think that everybody agrees on this and it will be our pleasure to give this matter close consideration.

CITY ENGINEER.

We will not vote for the confirmation of a city engineer who is so lacking in qualifications that he will advise the city commission to construct a 36-inch sewer to empty into a sewer one-half its size, which the present city engineer did, and then failed to have the two join on account of taking improper levels and resulting in the continuation of a 36-inch sewer onto the river at an additional expense to the taxpayers of more than $11,000, $550 of which he received himself as engineering fees on his own blunders. The total construction of this being more than $47,000. We are opposed to paying the city engineer on a basis of 5 per cent on construction work and giving him $60.00 a month additional and office rent, light and fuel. We believe in giving the city engineer a liberal salary the same as they do in cities of the size of Bismarck. We are then sure of good service and there will be no incentive for the city engineer to pad or accept excessive cost estimates which would benefit him materially on the present basis of his employment. In looking over his estimates for a new water plant the estimate being 704,000 we note that he has included $37,000 for engineering fees for himself and an additional $2,000 balance due on the plans and specifications. A glance at this figure will show the absurdity of this method of employing a city engineer, especially if the city enters upon the proposal to build a new waterworks system or takes over the old one and builds additions to same.

There is no danger of our being bought up by any public utility as the people have in their own hands and will finally have to determine at the polls the water system question and the method to be adopted in paying for same in case the city enters into furnishing water, besides you always have the right to recall of commissioners, which is very simple, provided we cannot show you an improvement in this city and lower taxes with as much efficiency as you are now getting. You have in your hands at little cost the opportunity to relieve us as your public servants. On this platform together with our statements made to the public in the past we ask your vote and your support.

COLD SPELL SENDS WHEAT UP IN TRADES

Better Tone Is Shown on Next Crop Offerings in Chicago

Chicago, Mar. 31.—Unseasonable cold weather led to higher prices for wheat today during the early dealings. Fear that the low temperatures would hinder growth and that other damage to the winter crops might result, induced considerable buying. July and September deliveries representing the forthcoming new crop were relatively stronger in price than May, which stands for wheat already on hand. The opening, which ranged from one-eighth to five-eighths cents higher with May, $1.19 1/2 to $1.19 3/4 and July, $1.15 1/2 to $1.18 1/2, was followed by decided further gains.

Subsequently an opinion of a leading crop expert that a change to warmth and rain for showers is much needed by winter wheat, and an additional bullish effect. Close firm, 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 cents net higher, with May, $1.20 1/2 to $1.20 3/4 and July, $1.17 1/2 to $1.17 3/4.

GERMANY RESUMES ORIENTAL TRADE

Berlin, March 30.—Germany is rapidly regaining its trade in the Far East, in spite of the fact that its islands in the Pacific were taken away by the Versailles Treaty, and business was interrupted for years by war conditions and the deportations and internment of its business men.

For the first nine months of 1922, Germany sold Japan goods valued at $6,500,000 yen. In 1913, German exports to Japan for the entire twelve months aggregated only $6,000,000 yen. The yen is worth about fifty cents.

In 1921, Germany sold China goods valued at 20,000,000 taels. An increase is anticipated in the figures for 1922 which German exporters believe will make the year's business greater than that of 1913, which was 28,000,000 taels. The tael is worth about one dollar and forty cents.

Before the war Germany had between four and five thousand citizens in China engaged in various commercial pursuits. It is estimated now that two-thirds of these are again in China, endeavoring to re-

10c A DAY!

FOR ONE YEAR'S UPKEEP!

Lahr's "Upkeep Cost" Insurance

We will keep any new Overland car bought from us from today on in proper running condition including labor and parts--excepting only tires, batteries and speedometers which are guaranteed by their manufacturers and damages from wrecks--for an entire year at a cost of only 10c a day.

We knew we were safe at 15 cents a day but further thought and investigation into past operation records have caused us to reduce our "upkeep cost" insurance to ten cents a day.

The Most Sensational Announcement Ever Made in the Automobile Industry

THIS REMARKABLE PLAN TAKES THE GUESS OUT OF AUTOMOBILE UPKEEP COST.

This is the first time in history that you can buy an automobile and know exactly how much it will cost to keep it in proper running condition.

Such a revolutionary measure is made possible only by the sturdy construction of today's extremely low priced Overland and its marvelous record of performance.

No other car in the world equals the economy of the Overland. No other car has ever sold under such an unlimited guarantee.

Others may give you a figure, but ARE THEY WILLING TO GUARANTEE IT?

SCHOOLS TO DISMISS FOR PUPPET PLAY

Sarg Spent Six Months "Outfitting" His Players at a Cost of $10,000

The schools will be closed Monday at recess in order to allow ample time for the children to attend Tony Sarg's "Rip Van Winkle" at the auditorium Monday afternoon, April 2 at 3 o'clock. In the evening at 8 o'clock "Don Quixote" will be presented by the marionettes.

Sarg has taken the stage versions of Rip Van Winkle and "recreated" this quaint old American folk tale, and with a quiet laugh all his own has quaintly and attractively burdened them all," says the New York Evening Telegram.

"Any way he has made a unique entertainment that appeals to children of all ages. Rip's famous dog, no longer Schneider, as in Jefferson's version, but now rejoicing in the name of Wolf, is worth the price of admission all by himself.

"He is one of the best actors in the east. His tail is as eloquent as that of any dog who ever moved without wires in real life, and he has ears that are as temperamental as John Barrymore and alert as Mrs. Fiske. His bark has much variety, and he talks back to Rip with an unflinching responsiveness.

"There is a rabbit, too, in the play, who is much like a real rabbit that when he scurried across the stage, Kenneth Mac Gowan's first born hailed him from the audience with the delighted cry, 'Hello bunny'."

The old romance of Don Quixote which will be presented in the evening could be staged on the regular state only with great difficulty, but it falls within the limits of the Marionette production with considerable ease, as the characters are themselves caricatures, humorous, and full of action. Animals abound in the story, and Mr. Sarg finds himself perfectly at home in producing acting sheep, horses, Sancho Panza's ass, Dapple, and even venturing into the insect world when it became necessary to show the ubiquitous humblbee which disturbed the slumbers of the doughty Don and his faithful Squire, Sancho.

The Don's charge upon a flock of sheep his tilting contest with the windmill and with another knight in armor, and the little marionette play within the marionette play are a few of the features most unusual and never before attempted on the marionette stage. Mr. Sarg devoted six months to the production, during which time he dramatized the story, made the figures, designed and produced the costumes, except for a few which came from Spain and Italy, and conducted a school for his puppeteers. The total cost of the play amounted to more than $10,000.

Tickets for children under twelve years of age will be 25 cents, for all others 40 cents; adults 50 and 75 cents.

For Dry Cleaning that will please you. Call 684. Capital Laundry Co.

R. B. Loubek and Company have received a carload of Packard automobiles, the first carload of the company for distribution in Bismarck, Mandan and other points in western North Dakota. The Packards are the "single 6" type, coupe and sedan. They rank as among the finest cars produced and Mr. Loubek declared their presence on the streets of Bismarck and Mandan ought to belie the reports of those who insist that western North Dakota is "broke."

The company also received two carloads of other cars, Hudsons and Essex. R. B. Loubek company handled Packards, Hudson and Essex cars.

WILL SUMMON MITCHELL FOR EXAMINATION

Wealthy Philadelphian to be Questioned in Keenan Case Again

New York, Mar. 31.—John Keenan Mitchell, wealthy son-in-law of Edward T. Stotesbury of Philadelphia again will be questioned by Assistant District Attorney Pecora today in his re-examination of all persons concerned in the still unsolved murder of Dorothy Keenan.

The wealthy Philadelphian was scheduled to meet Mr. Pecora this afternoon. It was said his personal attorney, John H. Jackson, also would be questioned. Francis Keenan, 21, brother of the girl, took up a good deal of Mr. Pecora's time after he had admitted that it was he that had telephoned Major Draper Daugherty, only son of the Attorney General of the United States, demanding that she be given a job in the Department of Justice. He denied, Mr. Pecora said, that he had threatened Major Daugherty with exposure of his admitted friendship with the Keenan girl in the event the job was not provided.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR You are requested to meet at 2:15 sharp Sunday afternoon to attend our annual Easter service.

AT THE MOVIES

THE ELTINGE.

"The Woman Conquers," which comes to the Eltinge theater for Monday is a story of the north woods. The cast includes Katherine MacDonald, Bryant Washburn, Mitchell Lewis and June Elvidge. A Robert Bruce Wilderness Tale, Pathe News and a Christie comedy, "Choose Your Weapons," complete the program. Lewis Stone and Bebe Daniels appear Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday in a Wm. DeMille Paramount picture, "The World's Applause." Buster Keaton, the solemn visaged comedian is also on the program in "The Blacksmith" and "The muscles of his brawny arms were strong as rubber bands."

CAPITOL THEATER

Life was anything but a continual round of pleasure for the crew of the whaling schooner "Carolyn Frances," regardless of whether its members had really signed ship's articles or belonged to the cast of players enacting the Metro version of Ben Ames Williams' powerful sea story, "All the Brothers Were Valiant." This is an Irvin V. Willat production and is presented at the Capitol Theater Monday. Fights and whaling were the principal activities of crew and cast during the month the "Carolyn Frances" sailed Pacific waters.

Being confined to the ship every day for a month became irksome to the cast. Chasing whales in longboats served to help break the monotony but even this sport lost its fascination.

The picture called for a mutiny scene. After its screening, stock was taken of casualties. Black eyes bruised knuckles and cracked ribs were plentiful. With such fistic artists as Al Kaufman, well known "white hope" of a few years ago, leading the attack, much physical damage resulted.

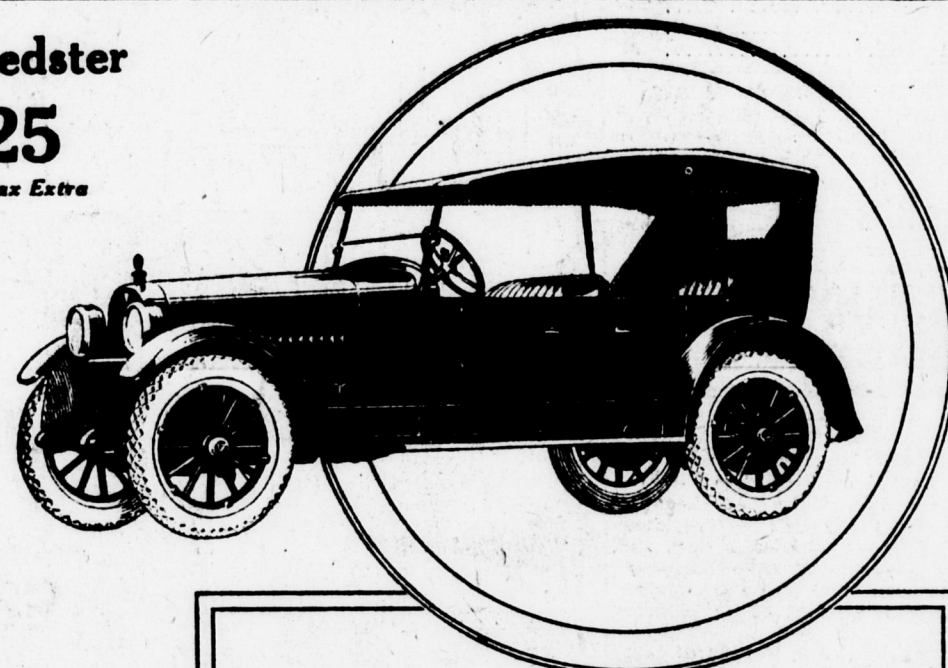

PRIEST STAYS PANIC WHILE EDIFICE BURNS

South St. Paul, Mar. 31.—Presence of mind of Father H. B. McCall averted a panic at St. Augustine's Catholic church here today when fire broke out while 500 worshippers, mostly women and children, were attending mass. Calmed by reassuring words of the priest that there was no immediate danger the congregation walked slowly out of the building. The edifice, together with some of its contents, was practically destroyed with a loss estimated at $75,000. The origin of the fire was not determined.

WITH THE CANDIDATES

FOR POLICE MAGISTRATE
I am a candidate for reelection on the platform of fair and impartial enforcement of all city ordinances and state laws. I have turned into the city treasury the past two years of my administration $2,300 over and above the expense of the office. If re-elected I will continue to run the office as in the past two years. I stand for law, order and justice, and a clean city.

W. C. CASHMAN.

FOR POLICE MAGISTRATE
There is just one platform for a candidate for police magistrate to take—that is to uphold the city ordinances and the state laws, to treat everyone with civility and to be fair to everyone. I believe a police magistrate should maintain the law and dignity of the office, and at the same time show all the mercy possible under law if it should be shown, especially in the cases of first offenders and children. My policy has been "Giving and Forgiving."

I have been a resident of this city and state for forty years and have served in the office of Police Magistrate. The records will show that the taxpayers of the city were not out one cent for the administration of my office, the cost being paid by the costs administered, but at the same time no effort was made to make a money-making proposition for the city in the administration of justice, and if elected I will

I have been in Bismarck eighteen years, am a taxpayer and a rather large user of water and electricity. I am in favor of an adequate water system for the city, to be secured in some manner (not by market). This matter has been discussed before every election I can remember, with no results, always the same old bunk and they have spent in the neighborhood of Forty Thousand Dollars for Attorneys and other expenses. There is something wrong with people always in court for in the finish they generally are forced to get together and settle it with fairness to both. If elected I will endeavor to bring it to a head, as it has been discussed until it is disgusting.

I believe in the City getting value received for every dollar expended. If this is done taxes can be reduced, and I stand for good government and a clean city and am not against any city employee who has done his work well.

It certainly is time for the people to stop and consider matters when they go to the expense of a headquarters and a hundred workers for a little city election with apparently nothing in sight but to keep the city in its present moral state. The police and fire departments are in the hands of Commissioners C. W. Ranzler and the credit should be given him, if any, unless it is a fact that one of the Johns runs the town.

I am running absolutely independent, without any jobs promised, no headquarters or campaign fund and if the voters of this city see fit to elect me I will aid and assist in every way to give the city an honest, efficient and economical administration.

F. W. MURPHY.

FOR CITY COMMISSION
Bismarck, N. D., March 29, 1923
To The Citizens of Bismarck:
We wish to state that if continued in office we will proceed speedily, to the end that the city shall own its own waterworks system in the shortest possible time. We also state that this will be accomplished at a fair price to the taxpayers of the city.

We desire further to state that when the time arrives to decide whether this plant shall be paid for by bonds or special assessment warrants the method of financing will be put up to you for advice and approval.

We feel and believe that the future growth, prosperity and development of the city and the interests of all its people depends greatly upon an adequate supply of pure water at a reasonable cost, in order that the health of the people may be safeguarded, ample fire protection be afforded and opportunity be afforded for cheaper water for use to grow grass, trees and shrubbery on lawns and boulevards, thus improving property and adding to its attractiveness and value as well as the general beauty of the city.

We promise our best effort to this end, as well as our best effort and judgment in all matters which will come up from time to time that your interest may at all times be protected.

Water Plant Not the Only Issue

To the Voters and Tax Payers:

After reading a statement in the Bismarck Tribune issued by the French & Larson Campaign Committee such article showing that our opponents are running together on the same platform and being managed by the same Campaign Committee and in view of the fact that the short platform which we announced was for the purpose of placing same on the ballot and not representing by any means all of the purposes for which we stand, we have conferred together to see how far we will be able to co-operate with each other on the commission if elected and we find ourselves in perfect accord on the following planks of a platform.

MUNICIPAL OWNED PUBLIC UTILITIES.

Our opponents state that they stand for a municipal ownership of waterworks "AND ALL PUBLIC UTILITIES." Any ten-year-old school child can understand the purpose of this plank in their platform. It is purely demagoguery, deceitful, and made for ulterior purposes and they well know that the full extent of this platform will not and cannot be carried out for it means either the purchase or the installing of new and complete waterworks system, electric light system, telephone system and gas works. The mere statement of this fact how the deceitfulness and the cunningness of our opponents platform. We do not wish to insult the intelligence of the taxpayers or consumers of the various public utilities of the city by stating that we are for the installation, or owning of all of the public utilities in Bismarck, but to make ourselves clear on this issue we state positively that with reference to the water supply for the city we will use our best endeavor to carry out the wishes of the taxpayers and water consumers on this question and when we speak of taxpayers and water consumers we mean a majority of the people affected and not a group of office seekers and chronic payroll officials. If the people, after due consideration are for a new water system we are for it, if they are for purchasing the present plant and putting additions on same, we are for it, but the people must in a proper method instruct us as to their desires.

The water situation is not the only issue in this campaign. The appointive officers of the city are the administrative officers and their conduct of affairs have a great deal to do with the proper and economical administration of its affairs and also a big factor in increasing or decreasing taxation to the people. For this reason we pledge you that we will not be a party to the following transactions.

CITY ATTORNEY.

We will never vote for the confirmation of any attorney in the city or approve a salary for him unless he gives his attention to the city business. That it is against public policy and the best interests of the city and incompatible with the position for him to represent the city while he has a partner representing the other side of any litigation in which the city might be interested. This has been done in the past.

CHIEF OF POLICE.

As our opponents state in their platform that they are for a cleaner and better city, we also can subscribe to this motto and for this reason we will vote against the confirmation or against the employment of any person on our police force who does not come up to the required standard of character and integrity and we will be for employment as special policemen or plain clothesmen, citizens of Bismarck with good reputation and character and so far as we are concerned we will use every effort to check in advance the unfavorable comment and any slurs that might be cast upon the city or its citizens or its officials by the repetition of such appointments as that of the cold-blooded murderer services as policeman in the City of Bismarck. We will also dastardly deed near Baldwin, soon after being relieved from his services as policeman in the City of Bismarck. We will also endeavor to head off the appointment of men on the police force who are placed there, to guard the sanctity of our homes and property. Before we can have a cleaner city it will be necessary for us to have clean policemen. We think that everybody agrees on this and it will be our pleasure to give this matter close consideration.

CITY ENGINEER.

We will not vote for the confirmation of a city engineer who is so lacking in qualifications that he will advise the city commission to construct a 36-inch sewer to empty into a sewer one-half its size, which the present city engineer did, and then failed to have the two join on account of taking improper levels and resulting in the continuation of a 36-inch sewer onto the river at an additional expense to the taxpayers of more than $11,000, $550 of which he received himself as engineering fees on his own blunders. The total construction of this being more than $47,000. We are opposed to paying the city engineer on a basis of 5 per cent on construction work and giving him $60.00 a month additional and office rent, light and fuel. We believe in giving the city engineer a liberal salary the same as they do in cities of the size of Bismarck. We are then sure of good service and there will be no incentive for the city engineer to pad or accept excessive cost estimates which would benefit him materially on the present basis of his employment. In looking over his estimates for a new water plant the estimate being 704,000 we note that he has included $37,000 for engineering fees for himself and an additional $2,000 balance due on the plans and specifications. A glance at this figure will show the absurdity of this method of employing a city engineer, especially if the city enters upon the proposal to build a new waterworks system or takes over the old one and builds additions to same.

There is no danger of our being bought up by any public utility as the people have in their own hands and will finally have to determine at the polls the water system question and the method to be adopted in paying for same in case the city enters into furnishing water, besides you always have the right to recall of commissioners, which is very simple, provided we cannot show you an improvement in this city and lower taxes with as much efficiency as you are now getting. You have in your hands at little cost the opportunity to relieve us as your public servants. On this platform together with our statements made to the public in the past we ask your vote and your support.
